Cowboys Conclude Successful 2010-11

On the Slate

The Wyoming wrestling team heads into the summer on a high note after concluding the 2010-11 season with a strong performance at the NCAA Championships on March 17-19 in Philadelphia, Pa. Juniors Shane Onufer (165) and Joe LeBlanc (184) earned the 26th and 27th All-America honors in Cowboy history with fifth and sixth-place finishes, respectively. LeBlanc also became just the third three-time All-American in UW history to help the Cowboys finish 28th in the team standings.

Wyoming enters the summer wrestling season now with several Cowboys set to compete in national tournaments.

Last Time Out: Onufer Fifth and LeBlanc Sixth on Final Day of NCAAs

Wyoming junior Shane Onufer went 1-1 on March 19 to claim fifth place overall in the 165-pound weight class during the third and final day of the 2011 NCAA Championships at the Wells Fargo Center, while junior Joe LeBlanc was forced to forfeit his final two matches to finish sixth in the nation at 184 pounds after missing weight. The Cowboy duo claimed the program's 26th and 27th All-America honors, the most since 1996, but UW dropped to 28th in the final team standings after having to forfeit LeBlanc's team points.

Onufer capped off the tournament by placing two spots higher than his No. 7 seed with a 5-4 decision over No. 4 seeded Josh Asper of Maryland in the fifth-sixth place match. The Terrapin used a first-period takedown to take the early lead, but Onufer earned a reversal in the third to tie the match and a takedown with 24 seconds left to seal the win. Asper had previously defeated Onufer 3-2 at the NWCA All-Star Classic last November and knocked the Cowboy out of last year's NCAA Championships with a 9-1 major decision.

In his first match of the day, Onufer squared off with No. 5 Colt Sponseller of Ohio State and fell 4-2 in a tight battle. Neither wrestler scored a point in the first period, before the Buckeye picked up two nearfall points early in the second and rode Onufer the entire period. Onufer got a takedown in the third, but couldn't overcome the deficit. Onufer finished 5-2 at the NCAA Championships for a 34-4 overall record on the season and posted a team-high nine pins to move to ninth on UW's all-time falls list with 31.

Head Coach Mark Branch

Mark Branch completed his third season as head coach of the Wyoming Cowboys in 2010-11, as the program continued to show dramatic signs of improvement under his direction.

In 2010-11, Branch continued that success with another stellar campaign. After spending the entire dual season ranked in the top 20 in the nation, Wyoming won its second-consecutive West Regional team title with five Cowboys claiming individual titles. Branch was named Western Wrestling Conference Coach of the Year at the event for a second time in his career. UW has claimed 12 total individual titles at the event under Branch and has never finished outside the top two. Branch also upped his total of UW wrestlers to earn All-WWC honors to 23 total with seven more honorees in 2010-11.

Branch also helped the Cowboys continue that success at the NCAA Championships with six Cowboy qualifiers. Juniors Shane Onufer (165) and Joe LeBlanc (184) earned All-America honors by placing fifth and sixth, respectively, to lead Wyoming to a 28th-place team finish. UW wrestlers have earned four All-America honors under Branch, including three straight by LeBlanc.

During the season, the Cowboys rolled to an 11-7 overall dual mark and 5-1 in the WWC. UW's lone dual loss in WWC action came in the last matchup of the season at Northern Iowa and was Branch's first dual loss in the WWC. He has compiled a 16-1 mark against WWC teams with two regular-season dual titles.

In 2009-10, Branch directed the Cowboy wrestlers to the West Regional team title over the 24-time defending champion Northern Iowa Panthers with three Cowboy individual titles. The come-from-behind championship was Wyoming's first-ever West Regional team title and UW's first tournament conference championship team since 1992.

After racking up four consecutive wins on Friday, LeBlanc missed weight by just half a pound on Saturday morning and forfeited his final two matches and all the team points he had accrued in the tournament. LeBlanc finished sixth despite having been disqualified from Saturday's two matches. He entered the tournament seeded fifth. Student-athletes must weight in each morning during the three-day tournament and are allowed one extra pound each of the final two days. LeBlanc's 5-1 record at the event put him at 29-3 for the season and moved him into sixth on UW's all-time wins list at 113. He trails fifth-place Chris Bell (1979-83) by just one victory.

Five of Wyoming's six wrestlers who qualified for and competed in this year's NCAA Championships have eligibility remaining for the Cowboys. In addition to juniors Onufer and LeBlanc, fellow junior Michael Martinez at 125 pounds, redshirt freshman Patrick Martinez at 174 and sophomore Lee Helbig at 197 will all return for the Cowboys. Only senior Cole Dallaserra at 149 pounds concluded his Cowboy career at the NCAA Championships.

Joining the Century Club

During the 2010-11 season, juniors Joe LeBlanc and Shane Onufer became the ninth and 10th wrestlers in UW history to crack the 100-career win mark. LeBlanc passed the mark on Feb. 3 against Air Force and currently holds a 113-17 mark. He is one win short of tying Chris Bell (1979-83) for fifth on UW's all-time list.

Onufer accomplished the feat at the West Regional. His 10-2 major decision over Northern Iowa's Trevor Kittleson in the semifinals made him the 10th UW wrestler to accomplish the feat, as he now stands at 106-22 in his career.

Junior Michael Martinez is approaching the accomplishment also, as he ended the 2010-11 season at 91-30.

Both are quickly approaching UW's all-time falls list as well. Onufer has 31 and LeBlanc has 28 to trail eighth-place Wes Gasner (1982-84) with 33.

The Other Martinez

Wyoming fans are plenty familiar with three-time NCAA qualifier Michael Martinez, but fellow Cowboy Patrick Martinez has been making a name for himself as well. A native of Hemet, Calif., Patrick went 17-3 as a 165-pound redshirt during 2009-10, before solidifying himself as UW's starter at 174 this season. He started 2010-11 at 165 and placed second at two tournaments, but made the jump up a weight class in December. He placed third at the UNK Loper Open and went 2-2 at the Reno Tournament of Champions, but won seven of 11 matches during the dual season with four major decisions. Patrick posted a 10-3 mark against the Western Wrestling Conference this season while winning the West Regional to qualify for the NCAA Championships. He led the Cowboys with 10 major decisions.

Wrestling With Deafness

UW's Lee (LJ) Helbig has overcome more than just the typical challenges on the wrestling mat. Helbig was born deaf and has a cochlear implant in his left ear to assist him with hearing, but can't wear the device when he competes. Wrestling in silence, he has blossomed in Wyoming's program, as his victories the last two seasons at the West Regional have clinched the team title for UW. In 2009-10, he split time at 197 and heavyweight, before finishing third in the regional at heavyweight. His pin in the consolation final gave UW the needed bonus points for a half-point win over Northern Iowa. Helbig started at 197 this year and posted a 22-14 overall mark. His 14-4 major decision in the West Regional final clinch UW's team title this year also. For a video interview with LJ log on to Flowrestling.com and search for "Helbig."

Versus the Western

En route to earning a 5-1 dual mark in the Western Wrestling Conference in 2010-11 and the West Regional team title, UW's 10 starters at the regional tournament compiled an 86-35 record versus WWC foes. The mark includes a perfect 12-0 record from junior Shane Onufer.

Shane in the Western

Junior Shane Onufer has rolled through the Western Wrestling Conference in his first three years at Wyoming. He's posted marks of 8-0, 9-0 and 12-0 to compile a perfect 29-0 record against WWC foes.

Checking the Rankings

With the conclusion of the dual season, most of the team polls have switched and now rank programs based on their projected finish at the NCAA Championships later this month. In the three major polls, InterMat and D1CollegeWrestling.net rank Wyoming No. 19, while WIN magazine has the Cowboys tied for 22nd.

Individually, four Cowboys rank in InterMat's top 20 of their respective weight class.

Wyoming Wrestlers Receive WWC Honors

Four Cowboy wrestlers earned the nod as the Western Wrestling Conference's wrestler of the week during the 2010-11 season. UW 184-pounder Joe LeBlanc (Meeker, Colo./Meeker HS) was the latest Cowboy to receive WWC honors when he was named Wrestler of the Week by the league Feb. 15. The conference award for LeBlanc was his first of the season and third of his career.

LeBlanc claimed his two victories over two top-15 wrestlers to push his overall record to 21-1. Ranked fifth in the country, LeBlanc started the dual against the No. 8 Oklahoma Sooners with a win over Erich Schmidtke, ranked 15th, with a 13-2 major decision. He followed with a win versus the No. 3 Oklahoma State Cowboys on Sunday as he took down No. 10 Chris Perry in a hard-fought 4-3 decision. LeBlanc is 7-1 on the season versus ranked foes.

UW 149-pounder Cole Dallaserra, 165-pounder Shane Onufer and 125-pounder Michael Martinez each also have won the award this season.

The Western Wrestling Conference, which is in its fifth year of competition, is comprised of seven schools including the Air Force Academy, North Dakota State, Northern Colorado, Northern Iowa, South Dakota State, Utah Valley and Wyoming.

Taking on the Best

The seven dual losses sustained by the Cowboys this season all have come at the hands of some top-tier teams. The teams to beat Wyoming this year include Lehigh, Oregon State, Nebraska, Cal Poly, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Northern Iowa. Six of those squads are currently ranked in the latest NWCA/USA Today poll.

NWCA All-Star Classic

Wyoming had two representatives at the NWCA All-Star Classic on Nov. 21 in Fresno, Calif.

Junior Joe LeBlanc earned a 10-5 win over No. 5 A.J. Kissel of Purdue at 184 pounds, while junior Shane Onufer dropped a 3-2 decision to No. 5 Josh Asper of Maryland.
