

MWC Championship: The Cowgirls removed the cellar-dweller moniker from the program last Saturday at the 2008 MWC Women's Golf Championship in Albuquerque, by finishing the event in sixth place of seven teams. Wyoming shot 322 (+30) during the final round and totaled 968 (+92) over 54 holes, one shot better than San Diego State.

UW shot rounds of 319 (+27) on Thursday and 327 (+35) on Friday.

It was the first time since the formation of the MWC that the Wyoming women did not finish in last place.

Wyoming's top finishers were Sarah Fogerty and Jonelle Martinez, who tied for 22nd place with scorecards of 239 (+20). Laura Mengelkamp had the team's best final round with a mark of 79 (+6). The event was the final collegiate competition for three Cowgirl seniors; Kaelee Aegerter, Lindsay Bauknecht and Mengelkamp.

The three-day, 54-hole event was played at the University of New Mexico's Championship Course, which is par 73 and measures 6,167 yards.

This was the final event of the 2007-08 season for the Cowgirl Golf team.

Player Notes: Sarah Fogerty earned the first top-five finish of her young career at the Cowgirl Classic, where she tied for fourth place with a score of 224 (+8). She has also finished in seventh place three times this season. In total, Sarah now has five top-ten finishes in two seasons, nine in the top-25. Her finish and score also tied for the team-best individual finish of the season and low event score of the season.

Laura Mengelkamp tied for fifth place at UW's home event in Chandler, Ariz. It was her second top-five finish this season, the sixth in the top-15. She now has ten top-five finishes in her career and 29 in the top-25 of a major field.

With her 15th place showing at the Cowgirl Classic, Jonelle Martinez now has six top-25 finishes in her career. Her final round of 73 (+1) was a career-best.

Kaelee Aegerter's 18th place tie in Chandler was the first top-25 finish of her career. She also tied a career-best in the final round with a 75 (+3).

Lindsay Bauknecht tied for 25th at the Cowgirl Classic, the sixth top-25 finish of her career.

School Records: Last fall at the MDA Invitational the Cowgirls rewrote the school record book and posted a new all-time mark for low team round with their second round total of 294 (+6).

To break the record, UW received rock solid scoring rounds of 71 (-1) from Sarah Fogerty, a pair of 74's (+2) from Molly Black and Laura Mengelkamp, as well as a 75 (+3) from Jonelle Martinez.

Wyoming's 906-stroke (+42) total at the MDA Invite also established a new all-time school record total for 54-holes.

UW scored 311 (+23), 294 (+6) and 301 (+13) to set the three-round record.
