

On the Tee:

The Cowgirl golf team concluded its 2010-11 season last weekend with a seventh-place finish at the Mountain West Championship. UW loses just one senior in Molly Black to graduation.

Last Time Out:

The University of Wyoming women's golf team shot a 305 (+12) during Saturday's final round of the Mountain West Conference Championship to finish seventh in the team standings at the Wigwam Golf Course and tie the Cowgirls best tournament score of the season at 910 (+46).

Senior Molly Black ended her Wyoming career on Saturday with a 75 (+3) to pace the Cowgirls during the third round. She started the day with a bogey on the first hole and double bogey on the third, but bounced back with two-straight birdies and finished the front nine at plus three. She hit two birdies and two bogeys on the back nine to shoot even for the final nine holes, as her three-day total of 228 (+12) placed her 26th in the individual standings.

Junior Juanita Rico finished as the top Cowgirl on the leaderboard with a 226 (+10) to tie for 24th, but carded a 78 (+6) in the third round after two-straight 74's (+2) and entering the day tied for 12th. UW's most consistent golfer during the majority of the season, Rico bogeyed five of the first seven holes on Saturday, before finding her groove on the back nine.

Sophomore Dana Zamprelli and redshirt junior Jenna Zamprelli fired 76 (+4) in the final round, while freshman Stacey Blunt shot 80 (+8). Dana totaled 230 (+14) to tie for 28th, while Jenna and Blunt tied for 32nd at 235 (+19). The Zamprelli sisters shot identical rounds of plus three on the front nine and plus one on the back nine.

Chip Shots:

* Wyoming's three-day total of 910 (+46) at the MWC Championship is UW's best at the conference tournament since head coach Josey Stender took over the program in 2006.

* Two Cowgirls averaged below 77 strokes per round for the 2010-11 campaign, as junior Juanita Rico earned a 76.7 and senior Molly Black finished at 76.9 for the season.
