Danny Sanchez (UCONN, '91) Cowgirl Soccer Head Coach

Sanchez enters his second season as the head soccer coach at the University of Wyoming. In his first season at the helm, Sanchez led the Cowgirls to a 8-10-1 record that was highlighted by two three game win streaks and a 1-0 victory over nationally ranked TCU. Wyoming's offense was strong in their eight victories out scoring their opponents 18-1. The defense for the Cowgirls was also tough as Wyoming ranked fourth in the MWC in goals allowed (1.16) and tied for second in shutouts (7).

Sanchez came to Wyoming after posting a 128-11-7 (.901) record in six seasons as the head women's coach at Metro State College in Denver, Colo. He led the Roadrunners to the NCAA Division II National Championship in 2004 and 2006. During his time at Metro State, Sanchez was the 2004 NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year, the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) Coach of the Year all six seasons. He was also a four-time National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Midwest Region Coach of the Year.

In his six seasons at Metro State, the Roadrunners won the RMAC Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament every year. They also won five Midwest Region Championships. In addition to its 2004 and 2006 National Championships, Metro State reached the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament three times (2002, '04 and '06) and advanced to the Elite Eight five times. At one point, Metro State won a Division II record 61 consecutive home games, as well as 59 consecutive overall games.

Metro State produced two Division II National Players of the Year and 14 NSCAA All-Americans in Sanchez's tenure.

Sanchez oversaw the Metro State men's Program from 2004-07 and helped lead the Roadrunner men to the 2007 RMAC Championship and to the NCAA Tournament in 2006 and 2007.

Prior to coaching at Metro State, Sanchez served as the head men's and women's soccer coach at Mesa Community College in Mesa, Ariz. from 1995-2002. # 2008 Season in Review

A Look at the Cowgirls '08 Season

The Cowgirl Soccer team finished the 2008 season with an overall record of 8-10-1, 2-5 in conference play which placed them in seventh in the Mountain West Conference.

Wyoming's season proved to have both high and low's. The Cowgirls started the season on the road with a loss to Western Michigan, but won their next two games at home against Bryant University (3-1) and South Dakota (7-0). The seven goals against South Dakota was the second most goals in a single game in school history. The non-conference schedule ended with the Cowgirls adding wins against Gonzaga, Utah Valley, a tie against Idaho State, and a loss to Utah State.

Conference action started with a victory over Air Force, and two weeks later defeated 29th ranked TCU 1-0. After the quick 2-0 MWC start, the Cowgirls lost their next five games. Three of those games ended with a score of 1-0.

Since 2003, the Cowgirls have defended the Louis S. Madrid Sports Complex with great success going 14 -4 in conference play. The Cowgirls failed to make a post season bid and have yet to win a post season game.

Senior Amanda Lathrop, a native of Lakewood, Colo. was named to MWC First Team All-Conference. Lathrop wrote her name in the UW record books by becoming career leader in assists with 15, and tied with fellow senior Tamika Wilson in career goals with 20.
