Home Team Underlined

2007 SEC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

OFFENSIVE

TIM TEBOW
Quarterback
FLORIDA
6-2 • 235 • Sophomore
Jacksonville, Fla. (Nease HS)

- Tebow completed 18-of-25 passes for 236 yards and three touchdowns and also led Florida in rushing with 93 yards on 17 carries and two touchdowns in the Gators' 59-31 win against Troy.
- The Gators scored touchdowns on its first seven offensive drives against the Trojans.
- Tebow has a current streak of 69 passing attempts without an interception.
- Tebow is second in the nation in passing efficiency and leads the SEC in total offense this season.

DEFENSIVE

GABE O'NEAL
Linebacker
MISSISSIPPI STATE
6-1 • 220 • Senior
Columbus, Miss. (HS)

- O'Neal tallied four total tackles and had an interception return (his first career interception) for a touchdown and a fumble recovery in Mississippi State's 38-17 win at Tulane.
- On Tulane's third play from scrimmage, O'Neal intercepted a Green Wave pass and returned it 47 yards for a score to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead.
- O'Neal recovered a Tulane fumble later in the first quarter that was converted into a touchdown on State's offensive drive.
- State held Tulane to just 44 rushing yards and 243 total offensive yards.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RYAN SUCCOP
Punter/Placekicker
SOUTH CAROLINA
6-2 • 213 • Junior
Hickory, N.C. (HS)

- Succop was perfect on all three of his field goal attempts and averaged 40.7 yards on seven punts in South Carolina's 16-12 win at Georgia.
- Succop's field goals were from 41, 35 and 34 yards.
- On his seven punts, Succop had two inside the 20-yard line and had one touchback. His long was for 52 yards.
- Succop also had one touchback on five kickoffs while the Bulldogs average starting position from the kickoffs was its own 30 yard line.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN

JASON LEGER
Guard
KENTUCKY
6-1 • 287 • Senior
Brodhead, Ky. (Rockcastle County HS)

- Leger graded out at 90 percent with four knockdown blocks in Kentucky's 56-20 win against Kent State.
- Leger did not allow any sacks and was part of an offensive line that helped the Wildcats score 56 points, the most for UK in a regulation game in five seasons.
- Kentucky scored on six consecutive offensive drives in the second half against Kent State.
- Kentucky has gone over 200 yards rushing and passing in both games this season.

SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Zach Gilbert, Auburn

Auburn senior defensive back Zach Gilbert will be featured this week as the SEC Good Works Team Player of the Week on this weekend's Lincoln Financial Sports telecast of the Mississippi State at Auburn contest.

A public administration major from Florence, Ala., spoke at the Alabama Special Camp for Children and Adults (ASCCA) and has been a guest speaker at Loachapoka Elementary School's Summer Day Camp.

He has also signed autographs at Auburn CityFest, visited Opelika Care Center and been a guest speaker at the Beat Bama Basketball Pep Rally. He did an internship this season with the Auburn Chamber of Commerce.

Gilbert received public mention by a man who Gilbert helped on the highway. The man had run out of gas and Gilbert turned his car around to help take him to get gas and bring him back to his car.

Each week during the SEC football season, Lincoln Financial Sports will highlight a representative of the 2007 SEC Football Good Works Team.

Student-Athletes earn SEC Good Works Team recognition for their community service and campus activities.

The SEC sponsors 16 Good Works Teams during the season, including one for each sport in the SEC, combining the indoor and outdoor track & field and cross country teams into one unit.

Week 1 - Tim Tebow, Florida

Week 2 - Corey Reamer, Alabama

Week 3 - Zach Gilbert, Auburn

SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating calls to be immediately reviewed during all games hosted by SEC teams.

THE COACHES' CHALLENGE

Each head coach is allowed one Instant Replay challenge per game, which is exercised by requesting a team timeout. A head coach may issue a challenge only if his team has one or more timeouts remaining in the half. If the challenged ruling is overturned, the timeout is not charged, but the coach has no more challenges during that game.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game (CBS Sports, ESPN, ESPN2, Lincoln Financial) or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards. The Southeastern Conference, following approval by the NCAA Football Rules Committee, will implement the use of video replay on an experimental basis beginning with the 2005 football season.

THE PLAYS

Reviewable

1. Plays governed by Sideline, Goal Line, End Zone, and End Line:
 - a. Scoring Plays, including a runner breaking the plane of the goal line
 - b. Pass complete/incomplete/intercepted at sideline, goal line and end line
 - c. Runner/receiver in or out of bounds
 - d. Recovery of loose ball in and out of bounds
2. Passing Plays:
 - a. Pass ruled complete/ incomplete/ intercepted in the field of play and end zones
 - b. Touching of a forward pass by an ineligible receiver
 - c. Touching of a forward pass by a defensive player
 - d. Quarterback (Passer) forward pass or fumble (if ruled incomplete, play is finalized)
 - e. Illegal forward pass or illegal handing off beyond the line of scrimmage
 - f. Illegal forward pass or illegal handing off after change of possession
 - g. Forward or backward pass thrown from behind the line of scrimmage
3. Other Detectable Infractions:
 - a. Runner ruled not down.
 - b. Forward progress with respect to first down
 - c. Touching of a kick
 - d. Number of players on field
 - e. Clock adjustments (in conjunction with overturned plays)
 - f. Fourth-down/try fumble plays

THE PROCESS

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with a DVSPORT Digital Replay System. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official is selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live video feed is sent directly to the replay booth. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while capturing/digitizing it into the DVSPORT Digital Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play as well as any replays as they occur in real time.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Communicator. As the Technician marks the incoming video, each view (by mark) will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Communicator can touch/click on a thumbnail and immediately send that play/replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a remote device controlled by the Replay Official. All replays/video are viewed on an output monitor. The touch screen is only used to select the replays.

While most plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Five onfield officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

THE EQUIPMENT

Each SEC member institution uses the Digital Replay System developed by DVSPORT of Pittsburgh, Pa. The replay systems are maintained by the home institution with technical support from DVSPORT.

2007 SEC FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The SEC's Eastern and Western Division winners will meet in Atlanta's Georgia Dome to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the Bowl Championship Series. The 16th-annual title game is set for December 1 and will be nationally televised by CBS Sports at 4:00 p.m. ET.

The game is a result of conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play a 12th football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

The 1994 SEC Championship Game earned a 10.5 rating and a 26 share, the highest rated SEC Championship Game in history.

The SEC Championship Game has also drawn capacity crowds in its history. 1,120,836 fans have witnessed first-hand the pageantry of SEC Football at the 15 previous Championship Games.

Attendance at the 15 previous championship games has been 102.3 percent of stadium capacity, including 13 sellouts.

THIS WEEK IN SEC FOOTBALL HISTORY

As the Southeastern Conference celebrates its 75th anniversary, here is a look at some of the highlights during the upcoming game dates in its history:

Sept. 15

1973 - Alabama tallied 667 total offensive yards (then third best in SEC history) and defeated California, 66-0, in the Tide's season opener. It is the Tide's third-largest season opening margin of victory ever.

1973 - In the first game of the Fran Curci era at Kentucky, the Wildcats defeat visiting Virginia Tech, 31-26.

1973 - Steve Sloan begins his tenure at Vanderbilt with a 14-12 win against Chattanooga.

1984 - LSU defeats Wichita State, 47-7, in Tiger Stadium. It is the first win for Bill Arnsparger as the Tiger coach and he leads LSU to the SEC title and a berth in the Sugar Bowl.

1990 - #24 Florida defeated Alabama, 17-13, in Tuscaloosa. It is the first SEC win for Steve Spurrier as head coach.

1990 - #7 Tennessee scores its most points of the Johnny Majors era in defeating Texas-El Paso, 56-0, in Knoxville.

CBS SPORTS - The 2007 season marks the 11th year for CBS as the league's national network television partner. CBS will televise up to 15 games per year throughout the season. CBS will normally broadcast its SEC games in the late afternoon window beginning at 3:30 p.m. ET. CBS provides exclusive national network broadcasts of conference home games during the season. CBS will televise the SEC Football Championship Game, which will be on Dec. 1 at 4 p.m. ET.

ESPN/ESPN2, the SEC's national cable provider, may televise up to 18 regular season games each year, with a minimum of nine on ESPN through the season. ESPN GamePlan offers fans extra college football games and is available on television or online. Viewers can order ESPN GamePlan on ESPN.com (search "GamePlan"), or by contacting their cable or satellite Pay-Per-View provider.

LINCOLN FINANCIAL SPORTS (LFS) (Formerly Jefferson-Pilot Sports) will continue its highly successful SEC Football Game of the Week this season. The Charlotte, N.C. company, holds the rights to televise 13 games annually throughout the nine-state SEC region on a syndicated basis. The games will be broadcast in the early afternoon at 12:30 p.m. ET.

FOX Sports Net South (FSNS), FOX Sports Net Southwest (FSNSW) and SUN Sports (SUN) together form SEC-TV, the league's regional cable package. SEC-TV Weekly airs Thursday nights and Saturday mornings during the season, highlighting all of the SEC's athletic teams and events.

SEC BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send eight of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 2007 season. The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the Bowl Championship Series comprised of the Sugar, Rose, Orange and Fiesta Bowls.

The Capital One (2nd), will then make its pick following the BCS selections. The bowl must select the team with the next best overall record or a team that is within one win of the team with the next best overall record.

The Outback, Chick-fil-A and AT&T Cotton Bowls will work with the conference office to determine picks 3-5. The Cotton Bowl has the first preference of teams from the Western Division and the Outback Bowl has first preference of teams from the Eastern Division. The Cotton or Outback Bowl can select teams outside of its divisional preference, but must not select them before the opposite bowl selects from its divisional preference. The Chick-fil-A Bowl has the selection of preference following the Cotton and Outback Bowls.

In selections 6-7, the AutoZone Liberty and Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowls will make their selections, not in any specific order, but in consultation with the SEC Office. The Bowls will rank available qualified teams in order of preference. If there are no similarities in the order of selection, the bowls will be granted its selection. If the bowls rank the same teams in preference, the team involved in the process would get its preference of which bowl to participate.

The PetroSun Independence Bowl will receive the eighth selection of available SEC teams.

2008 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES SCHEDULE

Following the 2007 college football regular season, the Bowl Championship Series will determine the National Championship. The BCS National Championship Game, which will stand alone from the four traditional BCS bowls but will be hosted by each of the bowls once during a four-year cycle.

The BCS consists of the FedEx Orange, Allstate Sugar, Rose presented by Citi, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences.

FOX Sports will televise all of the Bowl Championship Series games, with the exception of the Rose Bowl, which will be televised by ABC Sports.

The Bowl Championship Series guarantees a matchup between college football's top two teams in a true national championship game.

At the conclusion of the 2007 regular season, the Allstate BCS National Championship Game will be hosted in New Orleans on Jan. 7 at 8 p.m. EST. The Allstate BCS National Championship Game will have the top two teams ranked in the BCS final regular season standings.

The BCS uses regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a member of the BCS, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

Other BCS games following the 2007 regular season include the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1 at 4:30 p.m. EST, Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1 at 8:30 p.m. EST, Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 1 at 8:30 p.m. EST, and the Orange Bowl on Jan. 3 at 8 p.m. ET.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE TEAM NOTES

ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

Alabama improved to 2-0 on the season and notched its first SEC victory under head coach Nick Saban, as the Crimson Tide defeated the Vanderbilt Commodores 24-10 in Nashville. Redshirt freshman running back Terry Grant rushed for 173 yards and two touchdowns on 24 carries to record his second 100-plus yard game of the season. Defensively, the Crimson Tide held the Commodores to just 57 rushing yards and held receiver Earl Bennett to just four catches for 52 yards. Alabama gave up their first touchdown of the season when Vanderbilt's Mackenzi Adams threw a 15-yard TD pass to George Smith in the fourth quarter. Prior to the fourth quarter, Alabama had not allowed a touchdown in seven full quarters. Senior receiver DJ Hall is just 34 yards shy of becoming the school's all-time leader for career receiving yards after he gained 67 yards on three catches against Vanderbilt to become only the second Alabama receiver to reach the 2,000 mark. Former All-American and NFL Hall of Famer Ozzie Newsome (1974-77) holds the all-time record with 2,070 career yards while Hall stands at 2,037.

FLORIDA GATORS

Florida scored 49 points in the first half to post a 59-31 win over Troy. The 49 points ties the most Gator points in a half under head coach Urban Meyer. The 59 points scored by the Gator offense are the second most by a Gator team under head coach Urban Meyer. The most is 62, set last season against Western Carolina. With the win, Florida extends its home win streak to 17 games, tied for fourth longest in school history. The win also gives Meyer a 15-0 record at the Swamp. Quarterback Tim Tebow went 18 for 25 for 236 yards and three touchdowns and was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week. The Gator defense did not give up their first touchdown of the season until 7:55 remaining in the first quarter. It was the first touchdown they had given up since the second quarter against Ohio State in the national championship game. Florida also blocked two punts against Troy. The last time the Gators blocked two punts was last season against Vanderbilt. Brandon James returned the Troy kickoff in the first quarter for a career-long 59 yards. He finished the day with a career-high 127 yards in kick returns.

ARKANSAS RAZORBACKS

Arkansas had a bye week and used it to prepare for their first SEC game of the season. The Razorbacks will travel to Tuscaloosa Saturday to take on the Alabama Crimson Tide at 5:45 (CT). In their last outing, Darren McFadden and Felix Jones combined for 280-yards and four touchdowns as the Razorbacks handled Troy 46-26 in the season opener. With his 151-yard performance against Troy, McFadden sits fourth on Arkansas' all-time career rushing list with 2,911 yards. In the second quarter against Troy, Cedric Cobbs recorded a touchdown to tie for fourth in career rushing touchdowns with 26. McFadden also caught two 30-yard passes, and threw a 42-yard pass to Crosby Tuck for his first career touchdown reception. Jones is the first player in school history to have three kickoff returns for touchdowns of 90-plus yards. Despite the bye week, Arkansas moved up two spots to No. 16 in both the Associated Press and the USA Today Coaches Poll released Sunday.

GEORGIA BULLDOGS

Georgia dropped a 16-12 decision to South Carolina in their conference opener, snapping a five-game win streak over the Gamecocks. Senior PK Brandon Coutu had a career night as he made four field goals in five attempts (33, 44, 39 and 34 yards). Coutu missed his first attempt of the season 48-yards out. Coincidentally, the last time the Georgia offense failed to score a touchdown in a game was a 14-9 loss to South Carolina in 2001. For the fifth time in the last seven meetings with South Carolina, the margin of victory was six points or less. Redshirt freshman TB Knowshon Moreno tallied 104 yards on 14 carries for his first career 100-plus yard game. He recorded a 50-yard rush in the third quarter which was the longest run for the Bulldogs since Thomas Brown posted a 52-yard run in the 2006 Sugar Bowl. It was the first 100-plus yard game by a Bulldog since Kregg Lumpkin had 105 yards against Auburn in 2006. Junior TE Tripp Chandler finished with a career-high three catches for 44 yards and picked up first downs for Georgia on all three catches. For the second week in a row, junior MLB Dannell Ellerbe led the Bulldogs in tackles as he had 6.5, including one for a loss.

AUBURN TIGERS

Auburn fell to South Florida in overtime, 26-23. This marked the first overtime loss for Auburn since Oct. 22, 2005, in Baton Rouge when LSU defeated the Tigers, 20-17. Overall, Auburn is 3-5 in overtime games and 3-4 under head coach Tommy Tuberville. Auburn is also now 12-2 in night games at Jordan-Hare Stadium since the 2000 season. Kicker Wes Byrum's 49-yard field goal in the first quarter was a career-long and he finished the game with three on the night. Brandon Cox moved into fifth-place in school history for career pass completions, passing Patrick Nix, with 395. Defensive end Quentin Groves still needs just one sack to tie the Auburn career record of 26, held by Gerald Robinson (1982-85). Ryan Shoemaker had two punts over 50 yards against South Florida and is currently 13th nationally and leads the SEC averaging 45.1 yards per punt.

KENTUCKY WILDCATS

With a 56-20 win over Kent State, Kentucky opens the season 2-0 for the first time since 2002. Dating back to last season, Kentucky has won seven of its last eight games. The win also gives the Wildcats a five-game win streak at Commonwealth Stadium, the first time that has happened since a seven-game win streak from 1986-87. For the second week in a row, the Kentucky offense had more than 200 yards passing and 200 yards receiving. In addition to the productive passing, the Wildcats rushed for 266 yards and has now recorded back-to-back games with 200 yards or more rushing. The last time UK had back-to-back games with 200 or more yards rushing was in 1994. TB Rafael Little surpassed the 1,000-yard career receiving mark, making him the fourth player in SEC history to reach both 2,000 career rushing and 1,000 career receiving yards. He joins Florida's Errict Rhett, and LSU's Dalton Hilliard and Garry James. Little is third all-time at Kentucky with 4,160 career all-purpose yards. Keenan Burton tied Derek Abney for second place on the UK career pass receptions touchdown list with 18.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE TEAM NOTES

LSU TIGERS

LSU has outscored its opponents 113-7 over the last 10 quarters, including the 48-7 final margin on Saturday. Before the Hokies' touchdown in the third quarter, opponents had not scored against the Tigers since Notre Dame did so in the second quarter of the 2007 Sugar Bowl. LSU has outscored its opponents 157-7 in the first quarter in the 15 home games under head coach Les Miles (15 home games), including the 14-0 score Saturday. Alabama was the only team to score on the Tigers in the first quarter during that stretch. The Tigers extended their overall winning streak to nine games, and as a result of losses by Boise State, BYU and TCU, LSU now holds the second-longest winning streak in the nation. The Tigers stretched their home winning streak to 14 games and 18 games at home against non-conference teams. LSU's 598 yards of total offense is the most by the team since racking up 653 yards against Louisiana Tech on Nov. 1, 2003. The 48-7 win was the largest margin of victory by LSU over a ranked opponent since downing No. 16 Ole Miss, 61-17, on Dec. 5, 1970 in Baton Rouge. The 48-7 win was also the largest margin of victory by LSU over a Top 10 team in school history.

SOUTH CAROLINA GAMECOCKS

With Saturday's upset victory, Carolina is 5-11 in SEC openers, including a 2-1 mark under third-year head coach Steve Spurrier. Additionally, Spurrier's all-time record against Georgia improves to 12-3 (1-2 at USC).

The victory marks the highest ranked SEC opponent that Carolina has ever defeated on the road. The previous was a 1993 victory over No. 14 Georgia. The win over Georgia marks the first time the Gamecocks have defeated the Bulldogs since the 2001 season. (14-9 win in Athens). Under the direction of head coach Steve Spurrier, the Gamecocks are 13-4 when scoring first in a game. Junior WR Kenny McKinley extended his streak to 23 straight games with at least one catch. Junior PK Ryan Succop matched his career high for field goals in a game with three (also kicked three in the season-opening win at Mississippi State in 2006) and was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week. He has 19 career field goals.

OLE MISS REBELS

Ole Miss and Missouri combined for 1,093 total yards, the most since the 2003 Texas Tech game, when the two teams totaled 1,291 yards. BenJarvus Green-Ellis went over 200 yards for the first time in his career, finishing with a career-high 226 yards on 33 carries. It also marked his fifth career game with at least 100 yards. His 226 yards are the sixth most in a single game in Ole Miss history. Seth Adams had a career-high 305 yards passing, completing 23 of 41 passes, including three TDs. Adams completed the longest pass of his career, a 68-yard touchdown throw to Mike Wallace, in the third quarter. Wallace had a career-high 136 receiving yards on 7 receptions, the most receiving yards by a Rebel since Mario Hill had 187 against Memphis in 2005. This marks the first time since the 2004 Wyoming game that Ole Miss has had a 100-yard receiver and 100-yard rusher. In that game Vashon Pearson had 133 yards rushing and Mario Hill had 142 yards receiving. Ole Miss' 534 total yards is the most in the Ed Orgeron era, and the most since 567 total yards against Wyoming in 2004.

TENNESSEE VOLUNTEERS

Vols senior QB Erik Ainge was 23-for-36 against Southern Miss for 276 yards and two TDs. Ainge has thrown 83 passes this season without an interception. The 276 yards is the fifth-highest passing total of his career. Ainge completed his first seven passes against Southern Miss. He completed his first 10 passes in the season-opener against California. In the first quarter this season, Ainge is 17-of-21 for 201 yards, 2 TDs, 0 INTs and has a QB rating of 192.78. Ainge is now 18-7 as a starter. Austin Rogers (112) and Lucas Taylor (118) both had over 100 yards receiving vs. USM. That feat marked the first time UT has had two receivers post more than 100 yards receiving in a game since Marcus Nash (126) and Peerless Price (161) accomplished it against Auburn in the 1997 SEC Championship game. TB Arian Foster rushed 23 times for 125 yards and two TDs and had no rushes for negative yardage. It marked the first time since Kentucky in 2005 that Foster went over the century mark.

MISSISSIPPI STATE BULLDOGS

Mississippi State opened the scoring at Tulane with a 47-yard interception return by Gabe O'Neal. It was the Bulldogs first defensive score since Quinton Culberson returned an interception against Alabama last season. The Bulldogs had 489 yards of total offense which was the most since State racked up 547 total yards against Jacksonville State in 2002. Mississippi State finished the game with 290 yards rushing, which was the most by the Bulldogs on the ground since rolling up 304 yards against Ole Miss in 2005. Mississippi State finished the game with 10 converted third downs, the most by a State team since converting 11 against Jacksonville State in 2002. For the second-consecutive week, Mississippi State completed passes to 10 different receivers. Anthony Dixon finished with 131 yards rushing on 27 carries. Both are career bests for the sophomore (previous: 25 carries, twice; 125 yards, Ole Miss 2006). Dixon's two touchdowns were the 10th and 11th of his career. Mike Henig finished with 223 yards passing, his fourth career 200-yard game.

VANDERBILT COMMODORES

Sophomore CB D.J. Moore collected a career-best 13 tackles versus Alabama, including 12 that were solo. Moore was also a part of the Commodores defensive secondary that held John Parker Wilson to just 150 yards through the air. On special teams, Moore returned four kicks for 75 yards. Moore leads the team with 24 tackles this season after totaling 11 stops in the season opener against Richmond. Junior WR Earl Bennett collected four receptions for 52 yards Saturday. He now needs just 31 catches and 796 yards to become the SEC's all-time leader in career receptions and receiving yardage. A sellout crowd of 39,773 attended the Alabama game. The capacity crowd marked the second sellout in the last three games played at Vanderbilt Stadium. Vanderbilt's final game of the 2006 season against Tennessee was also sellout. Jeff Jennings (R-Jr.) earned his first start at tailback in more than a year against Alabama. Jennings missed the 2006 season with a knee injury suffered on Nov. 12, 2005.

THIS IS THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

- The Southeastern Conference sponsors championships in 20 sports - 11 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.
- The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

- During the last five years, the SEC has had more student-athletes honored as CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans than any other conference. The league has had 171 student-athletes named CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans, including 79 named to the first-team.
- During the last eleven years, the SEC has had 19 winners of the NCAA Today's Top VIII Award, which is given annually to eight outstanding senior student-athletes. Since 1997, no other conference has had as many student-athletes honored with this prestigious award. In 2006, Alabama track & field athlete Beth Mallory was named a recipient of this award.
- Florida's Chris Leak was named by the National Football Foundation as a National Scholar-Athlete. During the last five years, the SEC has had 11 student-athletes honored, the most of any conference. LSU's Rudy Niswanger won the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award given by the National Football Foundation in 2005 as the nation's top football scholar-athlete. Niswanger became the sixth SEC student-athlete to claim the "Academic Heisman" since the award was established in 1990.

FOR THE STUDENT-ATHLETE

- The 12 member institutions of the SEC provide nearly $65 million in scholarships for the more than 4,200 student-athletes each year.
- The SEC distributed nearly $675,000 during the 2006-2007 academic year from the NCAA Special Assistance Fund for Student-Athletes. This program was implemented to provide financial aid to student-athletes with specific needs such as clothing and shoes, medical or vision care, academic course supplies and family emergencies.
- During the 2007-08 academic year, the SEC will distribute more than $1 million to directly benefit student-athletes from the Student-Athlete Opportunity Fund.
- The SEC awards post-graduate scholarships totaling $130,000 to 24 student-athletes each year. The top male and female nominee each receive the H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award, named for the league's fourth commissioner, and a $10,000 scholarship. Last year, 22 additional student-athletes (11 female and 11 male) received $5,000 to continue their education. Alabama baseball player Emeel Salem and Vanderbilt track & field athlete Erika Schneble were named McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award winners in 2006-07.
- The SEC has established a Community Service Award to honor a male and female student-athlete with a $5,000 scholarship for outstanding service in the community. Tennessee swimmer Brad Boswell and Florida softball player Stacey Stevens were named recipients of this award in 2006-07.

A LEADER IN WOMEN'S SPORTS

- The SEC has developed a "Principles for Gender Equity," which, calls for each league school to provide equitable funding for women's sports, promotions and marketing and other support services. The SEC currently conducts championships in 11 women's sports and nine men's sports.
- The SEC had four sport winners of the Collegiate Woman of the Year Award sponsored by Honda. Tennessee's Candace Parker won for women's basketball, Courtney Kupets of Georgia took top honors in gymnastics, Georgia's Kara Lynn Joyce won in Swimming & Diving and Tennessee's Monica Abbott was the top athlete in softball.
- Since 1987, SEC schools have won 66 NCAA women's national championships, an average of more than three per year in the 11 women's sports the SEC sponsors. Nine of the 12 SEC institutions have won a national women's team championship since 1987.

COMPLIANCE AND EDUCATION

- The SEC Task Force Committee on Compliance and Enforcement has issued a report of recommendations that represents an important initial step in a formal process of establishing a new standard of compliance excellence within the Southeastern Conference. Among the recommendations included in this report was how institutions will handle reports of allegations, strengthening the relationship between the league's institutions and the conference office, developing new orientation programs and establishing an annual review of compliance issues.
- The SEC also conducts a New Coaches Orientation Program four times a year, which supplements institutional orientation programs and enhance the professional development of coaches. Topics of discussion range from the role of the SEC and NCAA to the role of athletics in higher education.

SPORTSMANSHIP

- The SEC has developed a sportsmanship statement for its institutions to follow. It states:
 "Coaches and student-athletes of a member institution, as well as individuals employed by or associated with that institution, including alumni, fans, patrons and boosters, shall conduct themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their behavior shall at all times reflect the high standards of honor and dignity that characterize participation in the collegiate setting. For intercollegiate athletics to promote the character development of participants, to enhance the integrity of higher education and to promote civility in society, coaches, student-athletes and all others associated with these athletics programs and events should adhere to such fundamental values as respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. These values should be manifested not only in athletics participation but also in the broad spectrum of activities affecting the athletics program. It is the responsibility of each member institution to establish policies for sportsmanship and ethical conduct in intercollegiate athletics consistent with the educational mission and goals of the institution. Furthermore, member institutions are responsible for educating on a continuing basis all constituencies about these policies."

IN THE COMMUNITY

- The SEC launched its education initiative in 2002, utilizing the platform of intercollegiate athletics to provide elementary school teachers with relevant resources they can use to educate and prepare children for life. The SEC became the nation's first conference to develop customized educational software, providing a CD-ROM containing SEC-branded content correlating to national educational standards. Since the CD-ROM was produced, the SEC has initiated an online program for K-8 students on education content and character development.
- SECKids.com is a website uniquely designed for school-age students. Now fans of all ages can access exciting, interactive and educational information on the SEC and its universities. SECKids.com features exclusive behind-the-scenes access at championship events, profiles of student-athletes and coaches, along with games and video highlights. Teachers can also register online to utilize the SEC Kids's college software in their classroom. The SEC is the only conference in the country to develop a site of this kind.

OVERALL ATHLETICS SUCCESS

- Since 1990, the SEC has won 118 team and 805 individual national championships. Since that time, the SEC has had at least one team ranked in the top five nationally in 76.8 percent of the total sports win which the league has competed (268 of 349). Ten of the SEC's 12 schools have won at least one national championship since 1990.
- In the SEC's 20 sponsored sports since 2000, the SEC has won more team national championships than any other conference in the nation. The SEC won 50 team titles since 2000, while the Pac-10 won 45 and the Big 12 won 21. The SEC won team titles in 16 different sports since 2000, also the most of any conference.

Sylvester Croom is in his fourth season at Mississippi State and overall with a record of 10-25 (.286). The Bulldogs' offensive coordinator is Woody McCorney and the defensive coordinator is Ellis Johnson.

Tommy Tuberville is in his ninth season at Auburn with a record of 71-30 (.703) and in his 13th season overall with a record of 96-50 (.658). The Tigers' offensive coordinator is Al Borges and the defensive coordinator is Will Muschamp.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN MISSISSIPPI STATE HAS THE BALL

Anthony Dixon eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark in the Bulldogs' win against Tulane this past Saturday. He rushed a career-high 27 times for a career-best 131 yards, a 4.9-yard per rush average, and two touchdowns against the Green Wave. It was the third time in the last five games, dating to those final three games of '06, that Dixon has surpassed 100 yards on the ground.

Senior DE Quentin Groves was named to preseason watch lists for the Lombardi Award, the Bednarik Award, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the Hendricks Award, and his play through the first two games has shown why. Groves is tied for second on the team with 14 tackles in the first two games, including a career-best nine against South Florida, and leads the SEC and ranks tied for sixth nationally with five tackles for losses. Groves also has two sacks, a forced fumble and 12 quarterback hurries through two games played.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN AUBURN HAS THE BALL

After recording at least one tackle for loss in each of the season's first two games, Titus Brown has now had at least one TFL in nine of the last 10 games, dating to last season, and a QB sack in seven of the last 10. LB Gabe O'Neal tallied four total tackles and had an interception return (his first career interception) for a touchdown and a fumble recovery in Mississippi State's 38-17 win at Tulane, being named SEC Player of the Week for the effort.

Senior quarterback Brandon Cox has been on target in three previous appearances vs. Mississippi State. Cox is 35-of-50 (70 percent) for 494 yards and five touchdowns with no interceptions during his career against MSU. He was 18-of-27 for 249 yards and two scores in last year's game, completed 12-of-18 for 202 yards and two TDs in the 2005 game and connected on all five of his passes for 43 yards and a score during his freshman season in 2004.

SPECIAL TEAMS

MSU's Derek Pegues returns as one of the league's top specialists. He returned 25 punts for 350 yards, a 14-yard per return average, second best in the SEC and 10th nationally. He also brought back 29 kickoffs for 687 yards, a 23.7-yard average, good for fifth in the league.

True freshman Wes Byrum is tied for the national lead with Georgia Tech's Travis Bell with six made field goals. Byrum had made three field goals in each of the first two games, including a season-long 49-yard field goal against South Florida. Redshirt freshman Ryan Shoemaker is currently leading the SEC and ranks 13th nationally, averaging 45.1 yards per punt.

SERIES/GAME NOTESRecord: AU, 56-22-2 • Last: AU, 34-0 (2006 at Starkville)

Auburn leads the all-time series with Mississippi State, 56-22-2 ... Saturday's meeting between the two schools will mark the 53rd consecutive year the two schools have played each other ... Auburn has won six straight in the series and 19 of the last 25 ... Mississippi State has been held to 18 or fewer points in each of the last eight games in the series, averaging 11.3 points per game during that span ... Just 10 games in the last 37 years have been decided by seven points or less, including three consecutive from 1999-2001 ... The Auburn defense has held Mississippi State to an average of 90.0 rushing yards in the last eight meetings.

THE COACHES

Kent Briggs is in his sixth season at Western Carolina and overall with a record of 21-35 (.375). The Commodores' offensive coordinator is Doug Malone and the defensive coordinator is Don Powers.

Mark Richt is in his seventh season at Georgia and overall with a record of 62-18 (.775). The Bulldogs' offensive coordinator is Mike Bobo and the defensive coordinator is Willie Martinez.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN WESTERN CAROLINA HAS THE BALL

Junior Kyle Garland caught a career-high four passes for a career-best 38 yards last Saturday. He had previously had three career catches, all coming two seasons ago. QB Adam Hearn tossed two touchdown passes last week, the first two of his career. The 21 points WCU scored Saturday marked the most since scoring 27 at The Citadel in late October of last season.

For the second week in a row, junior MLB Dannel Ellerbe led the Bulldogs in tackles as he has 6.5 including one tackle for a loss versus South Carolina. Last week versus Oklahoma State, he had a career-high seven.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN GEORGIA HAS THE BALL

Injuries plagued the Catamount defense a year ago resulting in allowing the most points (316) since 2000 (371). Hit hardest was the defensive line in which no player started every game in the same position. The return of players such as John Martin (#53), who earned a fifth-year of eligibility, Jeff Bradley, Brandon Drumgoole and Marcus Nelums at ends will bolster the experience level of the squad which lost its leading tackler from a year ago, linebacker Shelton Gaffney.

In his second collegiate game, redshirt freshman tailback Knowshon Moreno tallied 104 yards on 14 carries. Midway through the third quarter, he recorded a 50-yard rush, which was the longest run for the Bulldogs since Thomas Brown's 52-yard touchdown scamper in the 2006 Sugar Bowl against West Virginia at the end of the 2005 season.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Junior Jonathan Parsons will handle all of the place kicking on field goals and PAT's for the third-straight season. In his first two seasons as the primary place-kicker, Parsons has connected on a perfect 30-for-30 PAT attempts and is 9-of-13 (69.2-percent) on his field goal attempts, missing four last season in a 6-for-10 year.

Senior Brandon Coutu attempted the first five field goals of the 2007 season against South Carolina and made a career-high four. Coutu was 5-for-5 for PATs during Georgia's win over Oklahoma State to open the season. Last year, Coutu only missed one field goal attempt all year (in five games) – a 53-yarder against Colorado. He was 7-for-8 for field goals in 2006.

SERIES/GAME NOTESRecord: UG, 1-0 • Last: UG, 48-0 (1991 at Athens)

Georgia will face Western Carolina Saturday in only the second-ever meeting between the two schools. Both teams are in need of a win after falling last week. On Saturday, Western Carolina completes a three-game road trip to start the season. The Catamounts started the season with a 52-6 loss to Alabama followed by a 45-21 loss to Eastern Kentucky. Georgia finds itself at 1-1 for the first time since 2001. The Bulldogs last faced a team that plays in the NCAA Division I - Championship Subdivision (formerly known as Division I-AA) when they faced Western Kentucky in 2006. Georgia beat the Hilltoppers 48-12 in Athens to open the season. Western has trailed for 24-straight quarters dating back to last season ... WCU last led at The Citadel back on October 21, 2006 – the Catamounts jumped out on top 17-0 with its last lead coming in overtime of that game – a 27-24 advantage before falling, 30-27.

THE COACHES

Phillip Fulmer is in his 16th season at Tennessee and overall with a record of 138-41 (.771). The Volunteers' offensive coordinator is David Cutcliffe and the defensive coordinator is John Chavis.

Urban Meyer is in his third season at Florida with a record of 24-4 (.857) and in his seventh season overall with a record of 63-12 (.840). The Gators' offensive coordinator is Dan Mullen and the defensive co-coordinators are Greg Mattison and Charlie Strong.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN TENNESSEE HAS THE BALL

Senior QB Erik Ainge is 18-7 as a starter, including a 9-2 mark on the road. He has thrown only one interception in his last seven games (199 att.). He has an efficiency rating of 141.50, which is the fourth-best mark in the SEC this season. Junior Arian Foster ran for 125 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries, only the second 100-yard rushing performance in Tennessee's last 10 games. His 5.94 yards-per-carry average is second in the SEC and 15th in the nation among backs with at least 30 carries.

For the second-straight game, Brandon Spike and Dustin Doe led the team in tackles with nine each in the contest against Troy. Doe also recorded the first fumble recovery of his career in the second quarter. Spikes had the game's only sack for a nine-yard loss. Defensive end Derrick Harvey had two sacks in the season opener against Western Kentucky to bring his career total to 14.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN FLORIDA HAS THE BALL

Through two games, Tim Tebow's passer rating is 228.2, which is the second-highest in the nation, just ahead of Brian Brohm's (Louisville) 226.5. Tebow has completed 73.8 percent of his passes, which is the sixth-highest mark in the country and is the best in the Southeastern Conference. Tebow has thrown four passes for 40-or-more yards this season, equaling Florida's total of 40-plus yard throws from 2006.

Jerod Mayo and Rico McCoy are tied for the team lead with 14 tackles apiece. McCoy led the team vs. Southern Miss with nine tackles, and Mayo led the team at Cal with 10 tackles. The other starter in the LB group, Ryan Karl, has six tackles through two games. All-American FS Jonathan Hefney is fourth on the team with 11 tackles after finishing 2006 ranked eighth in the SEC with 7.4 per game

SPECIAL TEAMS

Daniel Lincoln is a perfect 4-of-4 on field goal attempts and 8-of-8 on PATs through two games this season. Lincoln kicked a career-long 47-yard field goal vs. Southern Miss.

Florida has opened the 2007 season with a new punter (Chas Henry) and place-kicker (Joey Iijas). Through the first two games, Henry has punted six times for an average of 37.5 yards. His long was 49 against Western Kentucky and he has placed three inside the 20 this year. Iijas is a perfect 15-of-15 on extra points through the first two outings.

SERIES/GAME NOTES

Record: UT, 19-17 • Last: UF, 21-20 (2006 at Knoxville)

Tennessee leads the all-time series with the Gators 19-17 and owns a 5-8 record in Gainesville. The Vols won two of their last three contests in "The Swamp," claiming a 34-32 win in 2001 and a 24-10 triumph in 2003. UT head coach Phillip Fulmer owns a 5-10 career mark against Florida. This series recently has been dictated by the running game, as the team with the most rushing yardage has won 15 of the last 17 meetings (UF won in 2000 and 2002 despite being outgained on the ground). Over the last five games in this series in Gainesville, Tennessee has averaged 117.4 rushing yards per game and Florida has averaged 78.8.

THE COACHES

Houston Nutt is in his 10th season at Arkansas with a record of 68-44 (.607) and in his 15th season overall with a record of 104-66 (.612). The Razorbacks' offensive coordinator is David Lee and the defensive coordinator is Reggie Herring.

Nick Saban is in his first season at Alabama and in his 14th season overall with a record of 108-59-1 (.646). The Crimson Tide's offensive coordinator is Major Applewhite and the defensive coordinator is Kevin Steele.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN ARKANSAS HAS THE BALL

Darren McFadden kick-started his junior season in grand fashion against Troy in the opener with 151-yards rushing on 24 carries, two receptions for 30 yards, a kickoff return for 19 yards and a 42-yard touchdown pass to Crosby Tuck out of the WildHog formation. He accounted for 193 yards of total offense and 200 all-purpose yards.

Alabama's defense has a three-man front, led by senior defensive end Wallace Gilberry. Gilberry will play his 40th career game for the Crimson Tide this Saturday against Arkansas. In 39 career games, Gilberry has 114 tackles, 30.5 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks. He has also added four forced fumbles, three fumbles recovered and two pass breakups. Gilberry had a career-high four quarterback pressures in the Tide's win at Vanderbilt on Sept. 8.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN ALABAMA HAS THE BALL

The Crimson Tide running game has been solid, led by redshirt freshman Terry Grant, who leads the league in rushing. Grant has 42 carries for 307 yards (7.2 average) and five touchdowns in wins over Western Carolina and Vanderbilt. Grant leads the SEC and ranks eighth nationally with 153.5 rushing yards per game. He is second in the SEC and sixth nationally in scoring with 15 points per game.

Arkansas returns six players on defense from 2006, including LT Ernest Michell, RE Antwain Robinson, LB Weston Dacus, S Matt Hewitt, FS Michael Grant and CB Matterral Richardson.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Felix Jones was just as good as McFadden vs. Troy with 129-yards rushing on 12 carries (10.8 ypc), a 90-yard kickoff return for a touchdown (144 kickoff return yards) and one catch for 14 yards. Jones racked up the third-most all-purpose yards in school history with 287. He was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week.

The return game for 'Bama is highlighted by Javier Arenas, who leads UA in both punt and kickoff returns. Arenas is second in the league and 14th nationally with a 18.4 average in two games. He had a 65-yard return against Vanderbilt in the 2007 SEC opener. He has 36 career punt returns for 378 yards (10.5 average) and two touchdowns.

SERIES/GAME NOTES

Record: Alabama, 9-8 • Last: Arkansas, 24-23 2 OT (2006 at Fayetteville)

Alabama holds a 9-8 (.529) series lead over Arkansas in a series that dates back to the 1962 Sugar Bowl at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans. The two teams have also played a pair of double-overtime games in the last four seasons. Arkansas won 34-31 in double-overtime in 2002 and 24-23 in double-overtime last season. The two teams met only twice before the Razorbacks joined the league in 1992. The Crimson Tide and Razorbacks first met in the January 1, 1962 Sugar Bowl at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans. Alabama won the game 10-3 to clinch its first of six national championships under legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant.

THE COACHES

Ed Orgeron is in his third season at Ole Miss and overall with a record of 8-17 (.320). The Rebels' offensive coordinator is Dan Werner and the defensive coordinator is John Thompson.

Bobby Johnson is in his sixth season at Vanderbilt with a record of 16-44 (.267) and in his 14th season overall with a record of 76-80 (.487). The Commodores' offensive coordinator is Ted Cain and the defensive coordinator is Bruce Fowler.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN OLE MISS HAS THE BALL

In his first two starts, Rebel QB Seth Adams has thrown for 506 yards and four touchdowns with only one interception. BenJarvus Green-Ellis followed up his 79-yard performance at Memphis with a monster day against Mizzou. The senior tailback went over 200 yards for the first time in his career, finishing with a career-high 226 yards on 33 carries with a touchdown. It was the sixth-most yards on the ground in school history.

One of the league's top performers at linebacker for the past two seasons, Jonathan Goff is the SEC's third leading active career leader in total tackles and solo tackles. Goff opened the season with seven tackles and an interception vs. Richmond, and added nine total tackles against Alabama.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN VANDERBILT HAS THE BALL

After producing three new records and earning SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors in a sensational season-opening performance against Richmond, Earl Bennett caught four passes for 52 yards against Alabama last Saturday. After opening the season hitting 19 of 25 passes for 284 yards and a career-high four touchdowns, Chris Nickson struggled against Alabama, hitting just five of 18 passes for 67 yards.

With just two D1 games under his belt, junior LB Ashlee Palmer is tied for the SEC lead in tackles per game with a 12.0 average. Junior DB Jamarca Sanford led the team with career highs of 13 tackles and eight solo stops against Missouri ... It marked his third career game with double-digit tackles.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Sophomore Marshay Green notched career highs of six kickoff returns for 146 yards in the Mizzou game. Junior Mike Wallace had his longest career kick return with a 21 yarder against the Tigers. Ole Miss has yet to have a true punt return through the first two games. Of Missouri's five punts on Saturday, two were touchbacks, two were fair catches and one was downed.

While junior Bryant Hahnfeldt continues to show signs of returning to full strength as a placekicker, other areas are not enjoying such results. On Saturday, a missed tackle and lost containment on Vanderbilt's opening punt resulted in a touchdown-producing 69-yard return by Alabama. One week earlier, Richmond reached paydirt on a kickoff return. The Commodore punting game also ranks last in the SEC with a 27.4-yard net average.

SERIES/GAME NOTES

Record: UM, 46-33-2 • Last: UM, 17-10 (2006 in Oxford)

This game will be the 82nd meeting between Ole Miss and Vanderbilt dating back to 1894. The Rebels lead the series 46-33-2 and have won 12 of the last 14 meetings since 1992, including last year's 17-10 victory in Oxford. The Commodores hold a 25-20-2 lead in games played in Nashville, although the Rebels have won five of the last six meetings at Vanderbilt Stadium. The Dores took the last meeting in Nashville, 31-23 in 2005. Ole Miss is looking to snap a streak of three straight losses in SEC openers ... This game features the SEC's leading tacklers in Rebel junior LB Ashlee Palmer and VU sophomore DB D.J. Moore, each averaging 12.0 stops per game.

THE COACHES

Oliver "Buddy" Pough is in his sixth season at South Carolina State and overall with a record of 41-17 (.707). The Bulldogs' offensive coordinator is Joe Blackwell and the defensive coordinator is John Hendrick.

Steve Spurrier is in his third season at South Carolina with a record of 17-10 (.630) and in his 18th season overall with a record of 159-50-2 (.758). Spurrier serves as the offensive coordinator and the defensive coordinator is Tyrone Nix.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN SOUTH CAROLINA STATE HAS THE BALL

SC State, picked to win the MEAC this season, is paced by senior quarterback Cleveland McCoy. Despite a slow start with just one completion in five tries for four yards in the first half last week, for the game connected on 10 of 18 tries for 88 yards and two scores. McCoy also had seven rushes for 66 yards in the contest.

Defensive end Eric Norwood was a first team Freshman All-American by The Sporting News and earned second team Freshman All-America honors by Rivals.com. Linebacker Rodney Paulk was named to The Sporting News' second team Freshman All-America squad. Senior middle linebacker Jasper Brinkley is an All-America candidate after earning first team All-SEC honors a year ago.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN SOUTH CAROLINA HAS THE BALL

Marshall McFadden, a preseason first team All-SEC selection, leads the defense. DB/SS Markee Hamlin, the current MEAC Player of the Week, helped spearhead the Bulldog defense that limited Bethune-Cookman to 247 total offensive yards and no offensive touchdowns in a 24-13 victory. He recorded 11 tackles, four solos, with one for a loss of two yards.

Blake Mitchell had a solid night in the win at Georgia, completing 20-of-31 for 174 yards. Cory Boyd ran for 76 yards and Mike Davis chipped in with 56. WR Kenny McKinley extended his streak at Georgia to 23 straight games with at least one catch. McKinley also recorded a season best with seven receptions for 102 yards, including a season-long catch of 31 yards in the opening quarter. This was McKinley's third career 100-yard reception game.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Stephen Grantham marked his return to the Bulldog squad in dramatic fashion week one, nailing a career-best 51-yard field goal for the team's only points in the 34-3 loss to Air Force. His successful kick was just one yard short of Cedric Oglesby's school record 53-yarder at Delaware State in 1998. As a freshman in 2005, Grantham was 9-15 on FGs and 45-51 on PATs, with his longest 47 yards.

Ryan Succop was perfect on all three of his field goal attempts at Georgia, matching his career high, and averaged 40.7 yards on seven punts. His field goals came from 41, 35 and 34 yards out, as he accounted for 10 of Carolina's 16 points in the contest. On his seven punts, two were inside the 20-yard line, with a long of 52 yards. He also had one touchback on five kickoffs, while the Bulldogs average starting position from the kickoffs was its own 30-yard line.

SERIES/GAME NOTES

Record: First Meeting

This will mark the first meeting of the two in-state schools. Two South Carolina State players were among those earning weekly honors in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. Redshirt sophomore Markee Hamlin was named Defensive Player of the Week and senior James Lee was chosen as Offensive Lineman of the Week, the league announced Monday. Prior to returning to his alma mater as head coach, Oliver Pough spent five seasons at South Carolina, the last three as running backs coach under Lou Holtz. During his stint at USC, he helped build the Gamecocks into one of the top offensive teams in the SEC. USC made back-to-back appearances in the Outback Bowl in 2000 and 2001.

Steve Kragthorpe is in his first season at Louisville and fifth season overall with a record of 31-22 (.585). The Cardinals' offensive coordinator is Charlie Stubbs and the defensive coordinator is Mike Cassidy.

Rich Brooks is in his fifth season at Kentucky with a record of 18-30 (.375) and in his 23rd season overall with a record of 109-139-4 (.440). The Wildcats' offensive coordinator is Joker Phillips and the defensive coordinator is Steve Brown.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN LOUISVILLE HAS THE BALL

Senior quarterback Brian Brohm now has 7,527 career passing yards, which places him third all-time. His 513 career completions are also fourth in school history. He threw for a career-high 401 yards in a win over Middle Tennessee — the 11th time in school history that a QB threw for 400 or more yards. Three different UL receivers hit the 100-yard mark last week.

Wesley Woodyard notched a season-high 15 tackles in a win over Kent State. He also knocked down one pass with a thundering hit on a Kent State receiver going over the middle. He started his 30th career game against Eastern Kentucky. Woodyard is the leading UK tackler each of the last two seasons.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN KENTUCKY HAS THE BALL

Defensive tackle Earl Heyman is racking up the tackles so far through two games. After entering the season with just 39 career tackles and one sack in 24 career games, Heyman already has nine tackles and a sack through the first two games. Junior Malik Jackson leads the team with 12 tackles and an interception.

Senior quarterback André Woodson has looked impressive in Kentucky's first two games as he has completed 68.6 percent of his passes (35- of-51). Woodson, who has completed at least 67 percent of his attempts in eight consecutive games, ranks second in the SEC in passing efficiency with a 178.1 rating. He extended his school-record streak of consecutive passes without an interception to 213.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Senior placekicker Art Carmody is easily the best kicker in the school's history and now is close to becoming one of the best in the history of the NCAA. Carmody, who owns numerous school records, is closing in on a pair of NCAA scoring records. Carmody needs just 54 points to break the mark for points in a career.

Despite changing the line of scrimmage on kickoffs from the 35-yard line to the 30-yard line — a change that was thought to cut down on touchbacks — UK kicker Tim Masthay has shown his leg strength as seven of his 18 kickoffs have gone for touchbacks, the highest number of touchbacks in the SEC. UK currently leads the league in kickoff coverage, averaging 50.1 net yards per kickoff.

SERIES/GAME NOTES

Record: UK, 10-9 • Last: UL, 59-28 (2006 at Louisville)

Kentucky and Louisville meet for the 20th time in program history ... The teams have met annually since the renewal of the series in 1994 ... UK leads the overall series 10-9 but has dropped the last four meetings ... UK hopes to return the Governor's Cup trophy to Lexington for the first time since defeating the Cardinals in 2002 ... The all-time series is tied at 6-6 when the game is played in Lexington ... Kentucky's last win in Lexington came in 1997 when the Wildcats defeated the Cardinals 38-24 ... The Cats are 47-29-5 vs. members in the current alignment of the BIG EAST Conference ... UK is 1-2 vs. a nationally-ranked Louisville team ... UK's last win over a Top10 team was 1977, 24-20 over No. 4 Penn State.

THE COACHES

Rick Stockstill is in his second season at South Florida and overall with a record of 7-8 (.467). The Blue Raiders' offensive coordinator is G.A. Mangus and the defensive coordinator is Manny Diaz.

Les Miles is in his third season at LSU with a record of 23-4 (.852) and in his 7th season overall with a record of 51-25 (.671). The Tigers' offensive coordinator is Gary Crowton and the defensive coordinator is Bo Pelini.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN MTSU HAS THE BALL

Every three times Phillip Tanner touched the ball at Louisville he found the end zone, including runs of 23, 1, and 79 yards. By the time the evening was complete Tanner had run for a career-best 144 yards and three touchdowns on just nine carries, averaging a monstrous 16 yards per touch. Junior Joe Craddock has responded nicely in his new role as starting quarterback. After two games, Craddock has completed 34 of 58 passes for 489 yards and three touchdowns.

Defensively, LB Ali Highsmith is tops on the team with 14 tackles, while DT Glenn Dorsey has 11 tackles, 2 TFL, and a sack. S Craig Steltz leads the nation in interceptions with four to his credit.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN LSU HAS THE BALL

Senior corner Bradley Robinson finished with two interceptions in his last five games last season to give him nine for his career. The Duncan, S.C., native needs just one more pick to move into the Top 10 all-time at MT and tie for sixth overall. Two more will put him in a tie for fifth and four will take him to third. Robinson's nine picks also rank fifth all-time in Sun Belt history.

QB Matt Flynn has been nearly flawless; connecting on 29 of 46 passes for 345 yards and 2 TDs. Flynn has also rushed for 54 yards and a score. RB Jacob Hester leads the Tigers in rushing with 149 yards and 1 TD, while RB Keiland Williams has 144 yards and 4 scores for the Tigers. WR Early Doucet has caught 15 passes for 153 yards and 2 scores, while WR Brandon LaFell is LSU's other top target, hauling in eight balls for 140 yards and a score.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Sophomore multi-purpose performer Desmond Gee was inserted as the team's primary kickoff returner against Louisville and quickly paid dividends with one of the best return games in school history. Gee's 160 kickoff return yards also were the fourth-most in school history and the second-most in a I-A game.

Punter Patrick Fisher is averaging 44.8 yards over 10 punts this season. His average ranks as the 2nd best in SEC and 14th best in the NCAA this year ... Has pinned four of his 10 punts inside the 20-yard line. He booted the ball a career-long 61 yards against Virginia Tech.
