SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating calls to be immediately reviewed during all games hosted by SEC teams.

THE COACHES' CHALLENGE

A new rule expands the ability of a head coach to challenge a reviewable play on the field. The head coach now retains a challenge if his initial challenge is successful and thus results in a reversal by the replay official. The coach will then have a single challenge that he may use anytime during the game if his team has not used all its timeouts. Thus a team may have a total of two challenges in the game, but only if the first results in a reversal of the on-field ruling.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game (CBS Sports, ESPN, ESPN2, Raycom Sports) or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards. The Southeastern Conference has used instant replay since 2005.

THE PROCESS

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with a DVSPORT Digital Replay System. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official is selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live video feed is sent directly to the replay booth. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while capturing/digitizing it into the DVSPORT Digital Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play as well as any replays as they occur in real time.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Communicator. As the Technician marks the incoming video, each view (by mark) will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Communicator can touch/click on a thumbnail and immediately send that play/replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a remote device controlled by the Replay Official. All replays/video are viewed on an output monitor. The touch screen is only used to select the replays.

While most plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Five onfield officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

THE EQUIPMENT

Each SEC member institution uses the Digital Replay System developed by DVSPORT of Pittsburgh, Pa. The replay systems are maintained by the home institution with technical support from DVSPORT.

CBS SPORTS - The 2008 season marks the 12th year for CBS as the league's national network television partner. CBS will televise up to 15 games per year throughout the season. CBS will normally broadcast its SEC games in the late afternoon window beginning at 3:30 p.m. ET. CBS provides exclusive national network broadcasts of conference home games during the season. CBS will televise the SEC Football Championship Game, which will be on Dec. 6 at 4 p.m. ET. The SEC and CBS announced a 15-year extension agreement in August.

ESPN/ESPN2, the SEC's national cable provider, may televise up to 18 regular season games each year, with a minimum of nine on ESPN through the season. ESPN GamePlan offers fans extra college football games and is available on television or online. Viewers can order ESPN GamePlan on ESPN.com (search "GamePlan"), or by contacting their cable or satellite Pay-Per-View provider.

RAYCOM SPORTS (Formerly Jefferson-Pilot/Lincoln Financial Sports) will continue its highly successful SEC Football Game of the Week this season. The Charlotte, N.C. company, holds the rights to televise 13 games annually throughout the nine-state SEC region on a syndicated basis. The games will be broadcast in the early afternoon at 12:30 p.m. ET.

FOX Sports Net South (FSNS), FOX Sports Net Southwest (FSNSW) and SUN Sports (SUN) together form SEC-TV, the league's regional cable package. SEC-TV Weekly airs Thursday nights and Saturday mornings during the season, highlighting all of the SEC's athletic teams and events.

SEC BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send nine of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 2008 season. The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the Bowl Championship Series comprised of the Sugar, Rose, Orange and Fiesta Bowls.

The Capital One (2nd), will then make its pick following the BCS selections. The bowl must select the team with the next best overall record or a team that is within one win of the team with the next best overall record.

The Outback, Chick-fil-A and AT&T Cotton Bowls will work with the conference office to determine picks 3-5. The Cotton Bowl has the first preference of teams from the Western Division and the Outback Bowl has first preference of teams from the Eastern Division. The Cotton or Outback Bowl can select teams outside of its divisional preference, but must not select them before the opposite bowl selects from its divisional preference. The Chick-fil-A Bowl has the selection of preference following the Cotton and Outback Bowls.

In selections 6-7, the AutoZone Liberty and Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowls will make their selections, not in any specific order, but in consultation with the SEC Office. The Bowls will rank available qualified teams in order of preference. If there are no similarities in the order of selection, the bowls will be granted its selection. If the bowls rank the same teams in preference, the team involved in the process would get its preference of which bowl to participate.

The Independence Bowl will receive the eighth selection and the Papajohns.com Bowl will have the ninth pick of available SEC teams.

2009 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES SCHEDULE

Following the 2008 college football regular season, the Bowl Championship Series will determine the National Championship. The BCS National Championship Game, which will stand alone from the four traditional BCS bowls but will be hosted by each of the bowls once during a four-year cycle.

The BCS consists of the FedEx Orange, Allstate Sugar, Rose presented by Citi, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences.

FOX Sports will televise all of the Bowl Championship Series games, with the exception of the Rose Bowl, which will be televised by ABC Sports.

The Bowl Championship Series guarantees a matchup between college football's top two teams in a true national championship game.

At the conclusion of the 2008 regular season, the FedEx BCS National Championship Game will be hosted in Miami on Jan. 8 at 8 p.m. EST. The FedEx BCS National Championship Game will have the top two teams ranked in the BCS final regular season standings.

The BCS uses regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a member of the BCS, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

Other BCS games following the 2008 regular season include the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1 at 4:30 p.m. EST, FedEx Orange Bowl on Jan. 1 at 8:30 p.m. EST, Allstate Sugar Bowl on Jan. 2 at 8 p.m. EST, and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 5 at 8 p.m. ET.

Furthermore, member institutions are responsible for educating on a continuing basis all constituencies about these policies."

Overall: 2-2LIVE TV: PPVOverall: 1-3SEC: 0-2XM: 141THE COACHES

Jerry Kill is in his first season at Northern Illinois and 15th overall with a record of 106-59 (.642). The Huskies' offensive coordinator is Matt Limegrover and the defensive coordinator is Tracy Claeys.

Phillip Fulmer is in his 17th season at Tennessee and overall with a record of 148-48 (.755). The Volunteers' offensive coordinator is Dave Clawson and the defensive coordinator is John Chavis.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN NORHTERN ILLINOIS HAS THE BALL

Offensively last week, the Huskies got a 100-yard rushing game from true freshman Me'co Brown, who earned 111 yards on 17 carries, as NIU averaged 5.5 yards per rush in the game with 235 total yards. Quarterback Dan Nicholson completed 11-of-15 passes for 92 yards and a touchdown, with five of those going to senior Greg Turner.

DT Dan Williams posted eight tackles and two TFL at Auburn. Wes Brown is one of only two defensive linemen with 10 tackles this season (Williams). He has 10 tackles and one for a loss this season. Elix Wilson has led the team in tackles in three of four games (12 at UCLA, 7 vs. UAB, 10 at Auburn). Rico McCoy led the Vols with 10 stops vs. Florida. Wilson has 4.5 TFL this season and one sack. Eric Berry has seven career interceptions (two this season). He has 21 tackles this season after leading the team with eight vs. Florida and posting three at Auburn.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN TENNESSEE HAS THE BALL

Defensive end Larry English is one of 30 student-athletes chosen as a candidate for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for football. English, who has 3.5 TFLs and one sack this season, won the 2007 Vern Smith Award as the Most Valuable Player in the Mid-American Conference. The senior led the MAC in sacks last season and ranked 11th nationally. He is a member of the Bronko Nagurski Watch list for the second consecutive season. Melvin Rice led the way with eight tackles versus EMU.

Arian Foster boasted 196 yards on 25 carries in his first two games, but gained 37 yards on 14 carries vs. Florida and 30 yards on eight carries at Auburn. He is 421 yards from being UT's all-time leading rusher. Lucas Taylor leads the team with 15 catches for 199 yards. Taylor became only the fifth Vol ever to reach 1,000 yards in a season in 2007. He posted 24 vs. Florida and six at Auburn. Gerald Jones has emerged as a go-to receiver with 13 receptions for 133 yards this season.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Versus EMU, Andy Dittbenner punted four times for a 47.2 yard average with all four of his punts pinning the Eagles inside the 20 yard line. None of his four punts in the game were returned and only one of his 13 punts on the season has been returned, giving NIU a number five ranking nationally in net punting with a 41.69 average. Dittbenner's punts last Saturday included a season-long 54-yard effort that put EMU at the nine-yard line in the first half.

Daniel Lincoln is 3-of-6 this season after making 21 of 29 a year ago. The Vols had not attempted a field goal since the UCLA game but converted twice at Auburn. Chad Cunningham is averaging 38.7 yards per punt this season after averaging 46 yards per punt last season. The Northern Illinois game will likely be his last as the starter due to the return of Britton Colquitt. Gerald Jones is averaging 13.8 yards per punt return.

SERIES/GAME NOTESRecord: First Meeting

Saturday marks the first-ever gridiron meeting between Tennessee and Northern Illinois...The Volunteers have previously played just three games against current members of the Mid-American Conference... UT posted a 52-9 home win over Akron in 1989 and recorded a pair of home victories over Temple in 1944 (27-14) and 1990 (41-20)... Current Vols head coach Phillip Fulmer was UT's offensive coordinator for the Akron game and the 1990 Temple triumph...Fulmer has never faced a current MAC opponent during his head-coaching tenure (1992-present).
