SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating calls to be immediately reviewed during all games hosted by SEC teams.

THE COACHES' CHALLENGE

A new rule expands the ability of a head coach to challenge a reviewable play on the field. The head coach now retains a challenge if his initial challenge is successful and thus results in a reversal by the replay official. The coach will then have a single challenge that he may use anytime during the game if his team has not used all its timeouts. Thus a team may have a total of two challenges in the game, but only if the first results in a reversal of the on-field ruling.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game (CBS Sports, ESPN, ESPN2, Lincoln Financial) or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards. The Southeastern Conference has used instant replay since 2005.

THE PLAYS

Reviewable

1. Plays governed by Sideline, Goal Line, End Zone, and End Line:
 - a. Scoring Plays, including a runner breaking the plane of the goal line
 - b. Pass complete/incomplete/intercepted at sideline, goal and endlines
 - c. Runner/receiver in or out of bounds
 - d. Recovery of loose ball in and out of bounds
2. Passing Plays:
 - a. Pass ruled complete/ incomplete/ intercepted in the field of play and end zones
 - b. Touching of a forward pass by an ineligible receiver
 - c. Touching of a forward pass by a defensive player
 - d. Quarterback (Passer) forward pass or fumble (if ruled incomplete, play is finalized)
 - e. Illegal forward pass or illegal handing off beyond the line of scrimmage
 - f. Illegal forward pass or illegal handing off after change of possession
 - g. Forward or backward pass thrown from behind the line of scrimmage
 - h. Quarterback (Passer) starts arm forward, ball comes loss and play is ruled incomplete (if ball is quickly recovered)
 - i. Quarterback (Passer) throws incomplete swing pass that is close to being forward or backward, and pass is ruled forward (if ball is quickly recovered)
3. Other Detectable Infractions:
 - a. Runner ruled not down.
 - b. Runner ruled down (when ball carrier is judged down by rule and the ball is fumbled, play may be reviewed if recovery of ball occurs in the immediate action following fumble and is prior to any official signaling ball is dead. Also reviewable when runner is ruled out of bounds near goal line.)
 - c. Forward progress with respect to first down
 - d. Touching of a kick
 - e. Number of players on field
 - f. Clock adjustments (in conjunction with overturned plays)
 - g. Fourth-down/try fumble plays
 - h. Field Goal Attempts (only when ball is ruled below or above the crossbar, inside or outside the uprights when it is lower than the top of the uprights.)

THE PROCESS

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with a DVSPORT Digital Replay System. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official is selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live video feed is sent directly to the replay booth. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while capturing/digitizing it into the DVSPORT Digital Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play as well as any replays as they occur in real time.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Communicator. As the Technician marks the incoming video, each view (by mark) will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Communicator can touch/click on a thumbnail and immediately send that play/replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a remote device controlled by the Replay Official. All replays/video are viewed on an output monitor. The touch screen is only used to select the replays.

While most plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Five onfield officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

THE EQUIPMENT

Each SEC member institution uses the Digital Replay System developed by DVSPORT of Pittsburgh, Pa. The replay systems are maintained by the home institution with technical support from DVSPORT.

SEC BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send nine of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 2009 season. The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the Bowl Championship Series comprised of the Sugar, Rose, Orange and Fiesta Bowls.

The Capital One (2nd), will then make its pick following the BCS selections. The bowl must select the team with the next best overall record or a team that is within one win of the team with the next best overall record.

The Outback, Chick-fil-A and AT&T Cotton Bowls will work with the conference office to determine picks 3-5. The Cotton Bowl has the first preference of teams from the Western Division and the Outback Bowl has first preference of teams from the Eastern Division. The Cotton or Outback Bowl can select teams outside of its divisional preference, but must not select them before the opposite bowl selects from its divisional preference. The Chick-fil-A Bowl has the selection of preference following the Cotton and Outback Bowls.

In selections 6-7, the AutoZone Liberty and Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowls will make their selections, not in any specific order, but in consultation with the SEC Office. The Bowls will rank available qualified teams in order of preference. If there are no similarities in the order of selection, the bowls will be granted its selection. If the bowls rank the same teams in preference, the team involved in the process would get its preference of which bowl to participate.

The PetroSun Independence Bowl will receive the eighth selection and the Papajohns.com Bowl will have the ninth pick of available SEC teams.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Bowl Championships Series is a five-game arrangement for post-season college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive match-ups among eight other highly regarded teams in four other games.

The five bowl games are the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, the FedEx Orange Bowl, the Rose Bowl Game presented by Citi, the Allstate Sugar Bowl and the BCS National Championship Game that is played at one of the bowl sites. The 2010 Citi BCS National Championship Game will be played in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

Unless a Southeastern Conference champion qualifies to play in the BCS National Championship Game, it will play in the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Fox Sports will televise the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl and the Allstate Sugar Bowl at the conclusion of the 2009 regular season. ESPN/ABC will televise the Rose Bowl presented by Citi and the Citi BCS National Championship Game.

In the 11 previous years of the BCS, the Southeastern Conference holds a 12-5 mark in BCS games (.706) - the most wins of any other conference and the highest winning percentage of any conference participating in more than two BCS games.

In BCS National Championship Games, the SEC is 5-0 (1.000) and has more BCS titles than any other conference. The SEC has won BCS crowns in 1998 (Tennessee), 2003 (LSU), 2006 (Florida), 2007 (LSU) and 2008 (Florida).

In the history of the BCS, an SEC team has been in the BCS standings 328 times, second only to the Big 12 with 331. The SEC and the ACC have had 11 of its 12 teams ranked in the BCS standings at some point since 1998 - more than any other conference.

THE DEFENSE NEVER RESTS

Year-in and year-out, the Southeastern Conference has especially made its mark on the defensive side of the football. 2009 looks to be no different.

Since 2004 (and counting 2009 to date), an SEC team has been ranked in the top 10 in total defense 18 times (in six seasons). In fact, six of the 12 SEC teams have finished in the top 10 in total defense since 2004:

Alabama - 2004 (2nd); 2005 (2nd); 2008 (3rd); 2009 (3rd).
Auburn - 2004 (5th); 2007 (6th).
Florida - 2005 (9th); 2006 (6th); 2008 (9th).
Georgia - 2004 (8th); 2006 (8th).
LSU - 2004 (3rd); 2005 (3rd); 2007 (3rd).
Tennessee - 2005 (6th); 2008 (3rd); 2009 (5th).

So far this season, six SEC teams are ranked in the top 30 in total defense - Alabama (3rd); Tennessee (5th); Florida (11th), South Carolina (15th); Vanderbilt (21st) and Kentucky (28th).

RETURN SPECIALISTS HEADLINE THE SEC

The SEC has five of the top return specialists in the nation this year, according to the latest NCAA statistics.

Alabama's Javier Arenas leads the SEC and is ranked 8th in the nation in punt returns, averaging 20.55 yards per return. He is also averaged 28.2 yards per kickoff return (26th in the nation).

Kentucky's Derrick Locke is third in the nation and leads the SEC in kickoff returns, averaging 47.75 yards per return. His 100-yard return last weekend against Louisville for a score gave the Wildcats a 10-7 first quarter lead.

Florida's Brandon James is second in the SEC and sixth in the nation in kickoff returns, averaging 39.33 yards per return and had an 85-yarder for a score against Charleston Southern.

Arkansas' Dennis Johnson is third in the SEC and 10th in the nation in kickoff returns, averaging 35.6 yards per return. He had a 91-yarder for a score against Missouri State.

Georgia's Brandon Boykin is fourth in the SEC and 15th in the nation in kickoff returns, averaging 32.36 yards per return and had a 100-yarder for a touchdown against South Carolina.

This season, three SEC players are making their way up the career charts in kick/punt returns.

Alabama's Javier Arenas is 2nd in career punt return yards (1,472 yards) and sixth in career punt/kick combined return yards (3,178). He needs just 82 yards to break in to the career top 10 in kick returns (1,706).

Florida's Brandon James is 7th in career punt return yards (1,145) and 4th in career kick return yards (2,198). He is currently 2nd in career punt/kick return combined yards with 3,343 and needs just 15 yards to break Derek Abney's (Kentucky) SEC record of 3,357 yards (2000-03).

South Carolina's Chris Culliver is 7th in career kick return yards with 1,867.

SEC BALANCED FROM 1-12

Each year, the Southeastern Conference has one of the nation's most competitive conferences from top to bottom.

Since 2004, more than 50 percent of the SEC's intra-conference games have been decided by 10-points-or-less. In 251 games since 2004, 127 games have been decided by 10-points-or-less, including 81 games by five-points-or-less.

The averaging scoring margin in SEC intra-conference games since 2004 is 13.45 points per game. The most competitive year since 2004 was in 2006, when the average scoring margin was 11.14 points per game.

This season, in six intra-conference games, the averaging scoring margin is 12.67 points per game.

SEC STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE PARTICIPATES IN "TOGETHER WE CAN" DRIVE

The Southeastern Conference Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) is coordinating its third annual league-wide food drive during the dates of Sept. 18-27. During last year's food drive, the SEC SAAC raised more than 150,000 pounds of food and donations that benefited local food banks and shelters.

The SEC SAAC is comprised of two student-athletes from each institution. The SAAC was established in 1992 to serve as a medium of communication through which student-athletes, conference administrators, institutional representatives and coaches discuss and take action on issues relating to rules governance, student-athlete welfare and community service.

THIS IS THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

2008-09 ANOTHER BANNER ATHLETIC YEAR FOR THE SEC

The SEC claimed five national championships in the 2008-09 year, tying it with the total from the 2007-08 season.

In 10 of its 20 sponsored sports, the SEC had either the national champion or the national runners-up.

The SEC had national championships in football (Florida), men's swimming & diving (Auburn), women's indoor track & field (Tennessee), gymnastics (Georgia) and baseball (LSU). The SEC also had national runners-up finishes in men's golf (Arkansas), gymnastics (Alabama), softball (Florida), women's swimming & diving (Georgia) and men's indoor track & field (Florida).

In its 76 year history, the Southeastern Conference has won 179 team national championships, including 63 since 2000. In this decade, the SEC has won at least one national championship in 16 of its 20 sponsored sports with the exception of women's cross country, volleyball, soccer and softball.

SEC LEADS ALL CONFERENCES IN 2008-09 MEN'S SPORTS CONFERENCE VS. CONFERENCE SURVEY; 2nd in WOMEN'S SPORTS

In a statistical survey that is based on NCAA championship and rankings, the Southeastern Conference placed first in the nine men's sports it sponsors and second in the 11 women's sports the league sponsors.

The survey, compiled each year since 1986 by Bo Carter, takes into account final NCAA championship standings in each sport and poll rankings in football. Each conference gets 20 points for a team that wins a national championship, 19 for a second place finish and down to 1 point for a 20th place finish.

In the nine men's sports the SEC sponsors, the SEC had 440.5 points with the Pac-10 coming in second with 375 points, followed by the Big 12 with 337.5 points, ACC with 214 points, Big East 102.5 points and the Big Ten with 80 points.

In the 11 women's sports the SEC sponsors, the Pac-10 was first with 615 points followed by the SEC with 431 points, the Big 12 with 337 points, Big Ten with 318.5 points, ACC with 277.5 points and the Big East with 161.5 points.

Combining the 20 sponsored sports, the Pac-10 had 990 points followed by the SEC with 806 points, Big 12 with 674.5 points, ACC with 491.5 points, Big Ten with 398.5 points and the Big East with 264 points.

The SEC has had the highest men's point total in 15 of the last 17 seasons (exceptions: 2007-08: Big 12; 1997-98: Pac-10). The Pac-10 has had the highest women's point totals each year since 1986 with the exception of four years the SEC has had the highest total (1990-91; 1995-96; 2004-05; 2006-07).

SEC LEADS DIVISION I CONFERENCES IN MOST ESPN THE MAGAZINE CoSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

The Southeastern Conference had 41 of its student-athletes each ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America Team mention, the most of any Division I conference in the nation.

The Academic All-America Program is administered and voted on by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

The SEC had 15 student-athletes earn first-team mention, 14 earn second-team and 12 earn third-team mention.

The Big 12 was second with 38 total student athletes listed while the Big Ten was third at 34 and the ACC fourth at 26. The Big Ten led all conferences in first-team honorees with 18, followed by the SEC's 15.

Each SEC institution had at least one student-athlete earn first, second or third-team mention. Florida led the SEC with seven student-athletes on the lists while Tennessee had six, South Carolina and Arkansas had five each. Alabama, Florida and Tennessee each led the SEC with three on the various first-team lists.

Florida's Stacey Nelson (softball) and Tim Tebow (football) were named Academic All-Americans of the Year in their respective sports.

SEC LAUNCHES ACADEMIC NETWORK TO PROMOTE 12 MEMBER INSTITUTIONS

The 12 institutions of the Southeastern Conference institutions have joined together in the launch of the SEC Academic Network, a website (www.secacademicnetwork.com) designed to promote the academic programs of SEC universities. The SEC Academic Network is being established by the SEC in partnership with ESPN and the member universities.

The Academic Network, developed using technology and coordination from ESPN Digital Media and Origin Digital, will feature content from every institution ranging from research, innovation and economic development to community partnerships, civic engagement and service.

"Our commitment to highlight the accomplishments of SEC member institution's academic programs was a key component of our new television agreements," said SEC Commissioner Mike Slive. "We are grateful to ESPN for providing the technology, expertise and tools they use in sports media to our institutions in support of academic pursuits."

Each institution has its own page on the website that includes videos categorized by topic. Alumni, fans and students worldwide will have the ability to learn more about SEC academics in one place through video features that are posted by the league institutions.

The Academic Network is a component of the SEC's 15-year television package with ESPN, which is the most comprehensive in the history of intercollegiate athletics. Also part of ESPN's commitment to SEC academic programs is the production of an annual Campus Connection telecast at each SEC institution, in which students take part in the production; telecasts of two programs annually dedicated to the academic accomplishments of SEC student-athletes; a weekly academic feature segment on ESPN's SEC show; and selection of one undergraduate student from every SEC institution to participate in ESPN's summer internship program.

SEC SPORTSMANSHIP STATEMENT

- The SEC has developed a sportsmanship statement for its institutions to follow. It states:

"Coaches and student-athletes of a member institution, as well as individuals employed by or associated with that institution, including alumni, fans, patrons and boosters, shall conduct themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their behavior shall at all times reflect the high standards of honor and dignity that characterize participation in the collegiate setting. For intercollegiate athletics to promote the character development of participants, to enhance the integrity of higher education and to promote civility in society, coaches, student-athletes and all others associated with these athletics programs and events should adhere to such fundamental values as respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. These values should be manifested not only in athletics participation but also in the broad spectrum of activities affecting the athletics program. It is the responsibility of each member institution to establish policies for sportsmanship and ethical conduct in intercollegiate athletics consistent with the educational mission and goals of the institution. Furthermore, member institutions are responsible for educating on a continuing basis all constituencies about these policies."

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN OLE MISS HAS THE BALL

Junior QB Jevan Snead tossed three TDs Saturday to extend his school-record streak to eight straight games with multiple TD passes. He has completed at least one TD pass in 11 consecutive games, which is five short of Eli Manning's school record. Sophomore RB Brandon Bolden topped the 100-yard mark for the second time in the last three games and second time in his career with 105 yards on 13 carries against SELA. Bolden has led the team in rushing in three straight games. Shay Hodge ranks eighth in the SEC in receiving yards with a team-best 68.0 per game.

The USC defense ranks fourth in the SEC in total defense (249.3 ypg) and second in rush defense (87.3 ypg). The unit is also tied for the league lead in sacks with 10, led by senior All-SEC LB Eric Norwood with four. That is seventh in the NCAA and he is tied for second in the league and 56th in the nation with four total tackles for loss. Darian Stewart leads team with 18 tackles thru three games. He equaled his career high with 11 stops at Georgia. Devin Taylor had an incredible collegiate debut vs. NC State with two forced fumbles, a blocked punt, sack and three tackles for loss.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN SOUTH CAROLINA HAS THE BALL

Dating back to last year, Ole Miss has posted an interception return for a TD in three consecutive games and notched multiple interceptions in seven straight. After ranking 10th in pass defense efficiency a year ago, Ole Miss stands second in the SEC in that category after two games, limiting the opposition to an 84.9 efficiency rating. The Rebel defense has yet to surrender a passing TD, while recording four interceptions. Ole Miss registered 10.0 TFLs in the season opener against Memphis, including a career-high 2.0 for junior DT Jerrell Powe.

Stephen Garcia had his highest completion percentage of career (.741) vs. FAU (20-for-27). Garcia turned heads in Sanford Stadium and all around the SEC on Sept. 12 with his 31-for-53, 313-yard, two-touchdown performance in a heartbreaking loss at Georgia. He is 3-3 as a starter. Saturday's game with Florida Atlantic marked the first time since 2007 that the Gamecocks boasted a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver in freshman Jarvis Giles (113 yards rushing) and freshman Tori Gurley (100 yards receiving).

SPECIAL TEAMS

With five extra points against SELA, junior K Joshua Shene extended his streak of successful PATs to 85, which is second on the all-time Rebel charts. Shene was 1-for-1 on field goals against SELA, connecting from 42 yards out, to remain perfect on the year (2-for-2 FGs, 11-for-11 PATs). Freshman K Andrew Ritter is averaging 65.4 yards per kickoff with five touchbacks in 16 attempts. Ritter has helped Ole Miss rank second in the SEC in kickoff coverage with a net of 47.6-yard average per kick.

Spencer Lanning is handling both the punting duties that he took over last year and the placekicking responsibilities that Ryan Succop handled over the last three years. Despite a shaky start at NC State, Lanning jumped into the field goal kicking role in a huge way, connecting on 5-of-5 field goal attempts at Georgia to tie a 19-year-old school record held by Collin Mackie. He ran his streak to six straight as he made his only attempt vs. Florida Atlantic, a 41-yarder in the first quarter. He is tied for second in the league with his six field goals and tied for fifth in the nation.

Offensively, the Tigers are averaging 28.3 points per game and 325.7 total yards (163.7 rushing, 162.0 passing). QB Jordan Jefferson paces the Tiger offense as he's connected on 47-of-73 passes for 475 yards, 5 TDs and just one interception. After an 11-stop game in Nashville, Wright now has 21 total tackles, 10th most in the SEC. McPhee recorded 1.5 sacks, moving him into the conference leaders as well. McPhee was named SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN MISSISSIPPI STATE HAS THE BALL

LSU goes into the State game having gone six straight quarters without allowing a touchdown. The last TD scored against LSU came in the second quarter against Vanderbilt. Since then, the Tiger defense has yielded only a field goal. Through three games, LSU is allowing 11.7 points and 320 yards (129.3 rushing, 190.7 passing) per game. LB Harry Coleman leads the squad with 25 tackles. DE Rahim Alem leads the team with 3.5 tackles for losses and two sacks, while his brother Chad Jones is tops on the squad with a pair of interceptions.

Senior running back Anthony Dixon has played in only two of MSU's first three games, meaning he hasn't reached the NCAA threshold of 75 percent of team games played to be ranked among national leaders. Dixon's 107.5 rushing yards per game would rank third in the SEC and 16th nationally. His 123 yards rushing at Vanderbilt moved him into third place on the school's all-time rushing yardage list with 2,818, and he needs only three yards to pass Walter Packer (2,280; 1973-76) for second. Leon Berry is a big-play threat at both wide receiver and in the return game.

SPECIAL TEAMS

LSU PK Josh Jasper is a perfect 5-for-5 on field goals. Trindon Holliday is a danger in the return game, being named "College Football's Fastest Player" and is the reigning NCAA champion in the 100-meter dash. He clocked 10.00 in the national final of the 100-meter at the 2009 NCAA Outdoor meet to claim the title and has run the 100-meter dash faster than any other player in the history of college football.

First-year punter Heath Hutchins and kicker Sean Brauchle have each made strong impressions early in their careers. Hutchins ranks second in the SEC with a 43.12 yard-per-punt average, and in 16 punts has allowed only six punt return yards. Brauchle missed his first two attempts as a Bulldog, but since then has made five consecutive tries, including a 49-yarder at Vandy last weekend. The Bulldogs rank 16th nationally in net punting, 23rd in punt return average and 36th in kickoff returns.

SERIES/GAME NOTES

Record: AU, 2-0 • Last: AU, 63-3 (2005 at Auburn)

Auburn and Ball State have met twice previously this decade, with the Tigers winning twice at home, by scores of 30-0 in 2001 and 63-3 in 2005... In the 2005 game, Auburn had the ball nine times, and scored touchdowns on all nine possessions while amassing 572 yards of total offense, including 390 on the ground... The Tiger defense stole the show in 2001, holding Ball State to 92 yards of offense while not allowing the Cardinals past midfield the entire game... Auburn has never lost to any current members of the Mid-American Conference, but the Tigers have only played six times previously against MAC schools.

THE COACHES

Dennis Erickson is in his third season at Arizona State with a record of 17-10 (.630) and in his 21st season overall with a record of 165-75-1 (.687). Rich Olson serves as the offensive coordinator and the defensive coordinator is Craig Bray.

Mark Richt is in his ninth season at Georgia and overall with a record of 84-23 (.785). The Bulldogs' offensive coordinator is Mike Bobo and the defensive coordinators are Willie Martinez and John Jancek.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN ARIZONA STATE HAS THE BALL

Danny Sullivan has turned in two solid performances in his first two collegiate starts so far this season. Against the Warhawks, Sullivan threw for a career high 220 yards. His previous high prior to this season was 118, which he set against Texas in the 2007 Holiday Bowl. Sullivan also threw his fourth career touchdown pass and ran for his first ever score. Dimitri Nance added two touchdowns of his own on the ground to go along with his 82 yards last week for ASU.

Junior WLB Rennie Curran leads the SEC with 34 tackles in three games. He is the top returning tackler in the SEC after recording 115 stops in 2008. Curran matched his career high with 15 tackles against USC in 2009 and had the game-winning pass break-up in the game's final seconds. Geno Atkins anchors Georgia's defensive tackles with 21 consecutive starts. Georgia's rushing defense has forced teams to the air and the Razorbacks touched the Bulldogs for 408 passing yards and five TDs.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN GEORGIA HAS THE BALL

Senior linebacker Mike Nixon intercepted three passes, returned one for a touchdown, blocked a punt and recorded four tackles, including one for loss in the season-opener. Now in his fourth season in maroon and gold, Nixon went the first 30 games of his career without an interception, but since picking off his first career pass at Cal last season, he has intercepted eight passes in his last 10 games. Dexter Davis is the only returning player in the nation who has recorded double-digit sacks in each of the past two seasons (10.5 in 2007 and 11 in 2008). He also has started 40 of a possible 40 games in his Sun Devil career.

Senior Joe Cox tied the school record with five touchdown passes against Arkansas while passing for a career-high 375 yards. Cox was 18-of-25 on the night (72 percent). Against the Razorbacks, A.J. Green registered his third career 100-yard receiving game after hauling in seven catches for 137 yards and two touchdowns. Richard Samuel rushed for a career-high 104 yards at Arkansas, including an 80-yard TD run early in the second quarter. It was the longest rushing TD for a Bulldog in an SEC game since Robert Edwards had an 80 yarder against Kentucky (1997).

SPECIAL TEAMS

When Omar Bolden took the opening kickoff 89-yards for a touchdown against ULM, he became the first ASU player to ever return the game's opening kickoff for a score. It was the 13th kickoff return touchdown in ASU history and the first since Rudy Burgess took one back 98-yards against USC in 2007. Freshman kicker Bobby Wenzig was expected to redshirt in 2009, but that all changed when he was forced into emergency action against ULM. With Thomas Weber out, Wenzig filled in admirably, going 5-5 on PATs and 1-1 on field goals in his collegiate debut.

Bulldog sophomore Blair Walsh drilled a career-long 53-yard field goal at #9 OSU. This was the longest FG for the Bulldogs since Brandon Coutu connected on a 55 yarder against UAB in 2006. With the graduation of Brian Mimbs, redshirt sophomore Drew Butler took over the punting duties and has done a stellar job. Butler is averaging an NCAA-leading 54.6 yards on 11 punts.

He also led the team with 11 tackles, including two for a loss, vs. Florida. It was his second-straight game leading the Vols in stops and his sixth career double-digit tackle game (second of the season). He currently ranks ninth in the SEC in tackles with 24 (8.0 per game). Chris Walker has emerged as the star of the line, posting two sacks at Florida to give him four on the season. That mark ranks seventh in the nation.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN TENNESSEE HAS THE BALL

The Bobcats picked off a pair of Cal-Poly passes in their 28-10 victory last Saturday to give them six picks on the season. Ohio has returned two of those interceptions for touchdowns. Redshirt freshman safety Gerald Moore leads the team with two picks. Senior linebacker Errik Ejike returned a 23-yard interception for a touchdown in the first quarter. Both the interception and the touchdown are both firsts for Ejike.

He is on pace for 1,380 rushing yards in 2009. Hardesty has reeled off 10 runs of 10 yards or more, including two 20-plus yard treks and a career-long 43-yard touchdown run vs. Western Kentucky. WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN VANDERBILT HAS THE BALL

True freshmen tailbacks Zac Stacy and Warren Norman ran their way into Vanderbilt record books in the opener vs. Western Carolina. Stacy and Norman became the first Commodore duo to rush for more than 100 yards in the same game since Kwane Doster and Norval McKenzie each gained 101 yards at Ole Miss on Sept. 21, 2002. Norman added 105 rushing yards and a pair of touchdowns. Redshirt freshman WR John Cole posted career highs with three receptions and 32 receiving yards versus Miss. State.

While the Owls offensive attack is led by a cast of new characters, Rice returns one of the most experienced defenses in the country. According to research provided by Philsteele.com, the Owls rank 21st in the country in terms of defensive experience with a total of 171 career starts entering 2008. Scott Solomon sacked UAB quarterback Joe Webb for a three-yard loss in the opener played in Birmingham. It was the junior's 21st career tackle for loss and his 10th career sack.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN RICE HAS THE BALL

Redshirt sophomore LB Chris Marve was outstanding on defense last week, posting 15 total tackles, just one shy of his career high set against Duke in 2008. Senior LB Patrick Benoist finished with 13 tackles, tying the second highest total of his career. He had 15 in a win over South Carolina last year. T.J. Greenstone had nine total tackles, including a 3-yard tackle for loss, against the Bulldogs.

Rice freshman Charles Ross rushed for three scores against Oklahoma State on runs of 2, 1, and 3 yards, becoming the first Owl to score three times on the ground in a game since Quinton Smith at UCF in 2006. Toren Dixon has caught at least one pass in 29 consecutive games. He currently ranks seventh on the NCAA's longest active streak. Dixon's career-high nine receptions at Oklahoma State moved him into fifth on the Rice career receiving chart. Nick Fannuzi completed 16-of-28 passes for 182 yards and rushed for 42 more at OSU.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Senior Brett Upson put on a punting exhibition against Mississippi State, keeping the Bulldogs bottled up for much of the game. The Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl MVP averaged 43 yards on a career high 11 punts. Upson had punts of 65 and 61 yards, his second and third longest efforts as a Commodore. In the first half, Upson also pinned the Bulldogs deep in their own territory by having coverage units down three punts inside the MSU 13-yard line.

Senior Clark Fangmeier moved into second on C-USA's career list by converting all three of his PATs vs. Oklahoma State. Rice's career kick scoring leader with 233 points, he has converted 161 of 162 attempts in his career, including 93 consecutive conversions. His 161 career PATs is 30 more than any other active kicker in the NCAA. Fangmeier's .994 career conversion rate is the best in conference history among kickers with at least 130 attempts.
