SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating calls to be immediately reviewed during all games hosted by SEC teams.

THE COACHES' CHALLENGE

A new rule expands the ability of a head coach to challenge a reviewable play on the field. The head coach now retains a challenge if his initial challenge is successful and thus results in a reversal by the replay official. The coach will then have a single challenge that he may use anytime during the game if his team has not used all its timeouts. Thus a team may have a total of two challenges in the game, but only if the first results in a reversal of the on-field ruling.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game (CBS Sports, ESPN, ESPN2, Lincoln Financial) or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards. The Southeastern Conference has used instant replay since 2005.

THE PLAYS

3. Other Detectable Infractions:
 - a. Runner ruled not down.

Also reviewable when runner is ruled out of bounds near goal line.)

THE PROCESS

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with a DVSPORT Digital Replay System. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official is selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live video feed is sent directly to the replay booth. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while capturing/digitizing it into the DVSPORT Digital Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play as well as any replays as they occur in real time.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Communicator. As the Technician marks the incoming video, each view (by mark) will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Communicator can touch/click on a thumbnail and immediately send that play/replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a remote device controlled by the Replay Official. All replays/video are viewed on an output monitor. The touch screen is only used to select the replays.

While most plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Five onfield officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

THE EQUIPMENT

Each SEC member institution uses the Digital Replay System developed by DVSPORT of Pittsburgh, Pa. The replay systems are maintained by the home institution with technical support from DVSPORT.

SEC BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send nine of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 2009 season. The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the Bowl Championship Series comprised of the Sugar, Rose, Orange and Fiesta Bowls.

The Capital One (2nd), will then make its pick following the BCS selections. The bowl must select the team with the next best overall record or a team that is within one win of the team with the next best overall record.

The Outback, Chick-fil-A and AT&T Cotton Bowls will work with the conference office to determine picks 3-5. The Cotton Bowl has the first preference of teams from the Western Division and the Outback Bowl has first preference of teams from the Eastern Division. The Cotton or Outback Bowl can select teams outside of its divisional preference, but must not select them before the opposite bowl selects from its divisional preference. The Chick-fil-A Bowl has the selection of preference following the Cotton and Outback Bowls.

In selections 6-7, the AutoZone Liberty and Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowls will make their selections, not in any specific order, but in consultation with the SEC Office. The Bowls will rank available qualified teams in order of preference. If there are no similarities in the order of selection, the bowls will be granted its selection. If the bowls rank the same teams in preference, the team involved in the process would get its preference of which bowl to participate.

The PetroSun Independence Bowl will receive the eighth selection and the Papajohns.com Bowl will have the ninth pick of available SEC teams.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Bowl Championships Series is a five-game arrangement for post-season college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive match-ups among eight other highly regarded teams in four other games.

The five bowl games are the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, the FedEx Orange Bowl, the Rose Bowl Game presented by Citi, the Allstate Sugar Bowl and the BCS National Championship Game that is played at one of the bowl sites. The 2010 Citi BCS National Championship Game will be played in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

Unless a Southeastern Conference champion qualifies to play in the BCS National Championship Game, it will play in the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Fox Sports will televise the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl and the Allstate Sugar Bowl at the conclusion of the 2009 regular season. ESPN/ABC will televise the Rose Bowl presented by Citi and the Citi BCS National Championship Game.

In the 11 previous years of the BCS, the Southeastern Conference holds a 12-5 mark in BCS games (.706) - the most wins of any other conference and the highest winning percentage of any conference participating in more than two BCS games.

In BCS National Championship Games, the SEC is 5-0 (1.000) and has more BCS titles than any other conference. The SEC has won BCS crowns in 1998 (Tennessee), 2003 (LSU), 2006 (Florida), 2007 (LSU) and 2008 (Florida).

In the history of the BCS, an SEC team has been in the BCS standings 328 times, second only to the Big 12 with 331. The SEC and the ACC have had 11 of its 12 teams ranked in the BCS standings at some point since 1998 - more than any other conference.

THIS IS THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

2008-09 ANOTHER BANNER ATHLETIC YEAR FOR THE SEC

The SEC claimed five national championships in the 2008-09 year, tying it with the total from the 2007-08 season.

In 10 of its 20 sponsored sports, the SEC had either the national champion or the national runners-up.

The SEC had national championships in football (Florida), men's swimming & diving (Auburn), women's indoor track & field (Tennessee), gymnastics (Georgia) and baseball (LSU). The SEC also had national runners-up finishes in men's golf (Arkansas), gymnastics (Alabama), softball (Florida), women's swimming & diving (Georgia) and men's indoor track & field (Florida).

In its 76 year history, the Southeastern Conference has won 179 team national championships, including 63 since 2000. In this decade, the SEC has won at least one national championship in 16 of its 20 sponsored sports with the exception of women's cross country, volleyball, soccer and softball.

SEC LEADS ALL CONFERENCES IN 2008-09 MEN'S SPORTS CONFERENCE VS. CONFERENCE SURVEY; 2nd in WOMEN'S SPORTS

In a statistical survey that is based on NCAA championship and rankings, the Southeastern Conference placed first in the nine men's sports it sponsors and second in the 11 women's sports the league sponsors.

The survey, compiled each year since 1986 by Bo Carter, takes into account final NCAA championship standings in each sport and poll rankings in football. Each conference gets 20 points for a team that wins a national championship, 19 for a second place finish and down to 1 point for a 20th place finish.

In the nine men's sports the SEC sponsors, the SEC had 440.5 points with the Pac-10 coming in second with 375 points, followed by the Big 12 with 337.5 points, ACC with 214 points, Big East 102.5 points and the Big Ten with 80 points.

In the 11 women's sports the SEC sponsors, the Pac-10 was first with 615 points followed by the SEC with 431 points, the Big 12 with 337 points, Big Ten with 318.5 points, ACC with 277.5 points and the Big East with 161.5 points.

Combining the 20 sponsored sports, the Pac-10 had 990 points followed by the SEC with 806 points, Big 12 with 674.5 points, ACC with 491.5 points, Big Ten with 398.5 points and the Big East with 264 points.

The SEC has had the highest men's point total in 15 of the last 17 seasons (exceptions: 2007-08: Big 12; 1997-98: Pac-10). The Pac-10 has had the highest women's point totals each year since 1986 with the exception of four years the SEC has had the highest total (1990-91; 1995-96; 2004-05; 2006-07).

SEC LEADS DIVISION I CONFERENCES IN MOST ESPN THE MAGAZINE CoSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

The Southeastern Conference had 41 of its student-athletes each ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America Team mention, the most of any Division I conference in the nation.

The Academic All-America Program is administered and voted on by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

The SEC had 15 student-athletes earn first-team mention, 14 earn second-team and 12 earn third-team mention.

The Big 12 was second with 38 total student athletes listed while the Big Ten was third at 34 and the ACC fourth at 26. The Big Ten led all conferences in first-team honorees with 18, followed by the SEC's 15.

Each SEC institution had at least one student-athlete earn first, second or third-team mention. Florida led the SEC with seven student-athletes on the lists while Tennessee had six, South Carolina and Arkansas had five each. Alabama, Florida and Tennessee each led the SEC with three on the various first-team lists.

Florida's Stacey Nelson (softball) and Tim Tebow (football) were named Academic All-Americans of the Year in their respective sports.

SEC LAUNCHES ACADEMIC NETWORK TO PROMOTE 12 MEMBER INSTITUTIONS

The 12 institutions of the Southeastern Conference institutions have joined together in the launch of the SEC Academic Network, a website (www.secacademicnetwork.com) designed to promote the academic programs of SEC universities. The SEC Academic Network is being established by the SEC in partnership with ESPN and the member universities.

The Academic Network, developed using technology and coordination from ESPN Digital Media and Origin Digital, will feature content from every institution ranging from research, innovation and economic development to community partnerships, civic engagement and service.

"Our commitment to highlight the accomplishments of SEC member institution's academic programs was a key component of our new television agreements," said SEC Commissioner Mike Slive. "We are grateful to ESPN for providing the technology, expertise and tools they use in sports media to our institutions in support of academic pursuits."

Each institution has its own page on the website that includes videos categorized by topic. Alumni, fans and students worldwide will have the ability to learn more about SEC academics in one place through video features that are posted by the league institutions.

The Academic Network is a component of the SEC's 15-year television package with ESPN, which is the most comprehensive in the history of intercollegiate athletics. Also part of ESPN's commitment to SEC academic programs is the production of an annual Campus Connection telecast at each SEC institution, in which students take part in the production; telecasts of two programs annually dedicated to the academic accomplishments of SEC student-athletes; a weekly academic feature segment on ESPN's SEC show; and selection of one undergraduate student from every SEC institution to participate in ESPN's summer internship program.

SEC SPORTSMANSHIP STATEMENT

- The SEC has developed a sportsmanship statement for its institutions to follow. It states:

"Coaches and student-athletes of a member institution, as well as individuals employed by or associated with that institution, including alumni, fans, patrons and boosters, shall conduct themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their behavior shall at all times reflect the high standards of honor and dignity that characterize participation in the collegiate setting. For intercollegiate athletics to promote the character development of participants, to enhance the integrity of higher education and to promote civility in society, coaches, student-athletes and all others associated with these athletics programs and events should adhere to such fundamental values as respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. These values should be manifested not only in athletics participation but also in the broad spectrum of activities affecting the athletics program. It is the responsibility of each member institution to establish policies for sportsmanship and ethical conduct in intercollegiate athletics consistent with the educational mission and goals of the institution. Furthermore, member institutions are responsible for educating on a continuing basis all constituencies about these policies."

The 93-yard return ranks second in LSU history and proved to be the winning points for the Tigers.

Bulldog sophomore Blair Walsh connected on a 37-yard FG to beat ASU as time expired in 2009. This was the first game-winning FG for the Bulldogs since Brandon Coutu drilled one from the same distance to beat Vanderbilt in 2007. Drew Butler is averaging an NCAA-leading 50.1 yards on 16 punts. Green ranks second in the SEC in PR average at 11.2 ypr.

After a slow start, Vanderbilt's kicking specialists have shown across-the-board improvement. The Commodores hold a 26-20-2 advantage in games played in Nashville, although the Rebels have taken five of the last seven... The Dores won the last two at Vanderbilt Stadium... Ole Miss leads 46-17-2 in SEC games versus VU. Vanderbilt won the first 19 games in the series, with Ole Miss having won 46 of the last 64 games played between the two teams.

THE COACHES

Oliver 'Buddy' Pugh is in his eighth season at South Carolina State and overall with a record of 60-24 (.714). Pugh serves as the offensive coordinator and the defensive coordinator is Mike Adams.

Steve Spurrier is in his fifth season at South Carolina with a record of 31-23 (.574) and in his 25th season overall with a record of 220-104-2 (.678). Spurrier serves as the Gamecocks' offensive coordinator and the defensive coordinator is Lorenzo Ward.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN SOUTH CAROLINA STATE HAS THE BALL

Malcolm Long completed 22 of 33 passes for 274 yards and 1 TD in the Bulldogs' 27-10 win over Winston-Salem State. Long set a career record for passing yards in a game with 274 and tied his completion record of 22 in the contest as SC State improved to 3-0 and remained atop all three HBCU polls. William Ford is the focal point of the SC State offensive attack. He was limited to 147 yards on 29 carries in wins over Grambling (34-31) and Bethune-Cookman (24-3). Johnny Culbreath is the anchor of the Bulldog offensive line and an All-MEAC tackle.

Eric Norwood logged a game-high 10 tackles (seven solos) with a pair of sacks and another half-tackle for loss, partially blocked a punt and added two quarterback pressures in the upset win over Ole Miss. The two sacks give Norwood 28.0 in his career, which is a school record and tied for eighth place in SEC history. His 2.5 tackles for loss against the Rebels now give him 49.5 for his career, which ranks 11th in SEC history and is also a school record. Travian Robertson sustained a torn anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in his right knee and will be sidelined for the remainder of the 2009 season.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN SOUTH CAROLINA HAS THE BALL

Markee Hamlin is among the top defensive backs in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and has been throughout his SC State career. Hamlin is third on the team with 15 tackles. David Erby was named MEAC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts versus Bethune-Cookman. He finished the game with 11 tackles and on sack. Erby leads the team with 31 tackles. Patrick Washington leads SCSU with three sacks on the season.

Stephen Garcia ranks fourth in the SEC in total offense. Garcia has accounted for an average of 241.5 yards per game. He is also fifth in the league in passing average yards per game at 225.8. Brian Maddox is tied for second in the SEC with five touchdowns. Tori Gurley had a four-catch, 46-yard performance against Georgia that also saw him score his first career touchdown. And if that weren't enough, he turned in his first 100-yard game with exactly 100 yards on four catches against Florida Atlantic. And forgive him if he feels a little snake bitten — four would-be Gurley touchdowns have been called back on penalties.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Blake Erickson is a perfect 3-3 on field goals this season, including a long of 40 yards. Leigh Manley averages nearly 36 yards per punt and has placed five inside the 20 yard line. Oliver Young averages over 30 yards per kickoff return and has an 86 yard return for a touchdown already this season.

Spencer Lanning is handling both the punting duties that he took over last year and the placekicking responsibilities that Ryan Succop handled over the last three years. Despite a shaky start at NC State, Lanning jumped into the field goal kicking role in a huge way, connecting on 5-of-5 field goal attempts at Georgia to tie a 19-year-old school record held by Collin Mackie. He has run his streak to nine straight field goals made, as he hit his only attempt vs. Florida Atlantic, and then connected on all three attempts vs. Ole Miss. He leads the league with his nine field goals and is tied for fifth in the nation.

Dan Mullen is in his first season at MSU and overall. The Bulldogs' offensive coordinator is Les Koenning and the defensive coordinator is Carl Torbush.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN GEORGIA TECH HAS THE BALL

Jonathan Dwyer broke loose for 158 yards rushing -- just one yard shy of tying a career high -- last week against North Carolina. In the process, the 2009 ACC Preseason Player of the Year eclipsed 2,000 career rushing yards and moved into ninth place on Tech's all-time career rushing chart. Dwyer ranks second in the ACC and 38th nationally in rushing (81.5 ypg). Demaryius Thomas ranks second in the ACC and 26th nationally in receiving yards per game (90.5). Junior quarterback Josh Nesbitt doesn't produce statistics that jump off the page -- although he does rank third in the ACC in rushing (77.5 ypg).

Senior linebacker Jamar Chaney and junior K.J. Wright are the team's leaders on defense, and their names appear atop the MSU defense statistics and among the conference leaders in total tackles. Wright has 26 tackles in the first four games, including 11 at Vanderbilt. Chaney has 24 stops and tallied eight stops, a sack and 1.5 tackles for loss against LSU a week ago. Wright also had a TFL against LSU and leads the team with 3.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN MISSISSIPPI STATE HAS THE BALL

Morgan Burnett two interceptions against the Heels', including one that would seal the game for the Jackets with 1:34 left on the clock. Burnett's two interceptions give him three for the season--good for second place in the ACC--and 13 for his career, moving him into a tie for fourth in school history. He also made a team-high six tackles. Derrick Morgan has 5.5 sacks on the season, which ranks first in the ACC and tied for sixth nationally. He has 7.0 tackles for loss, which leads the ACC and ranks tied for 17th nationally.

Senior running back Anthony Dixon has racked up 321 yards in his three games this season, good for a 107.0 yard average - 16th highest in the nation and second in the Southeastern Conference. Dixon entered the SEC record book last weekend, moving into 10th on the conference rushing attempts list. Dixon has not lost a fumble since the regular-season finale of 2007, a stretch of 16 games. Marcus Green had five receptions for 100 yards versus LSU, becoming the first Mississippi State tight end to have 100+ receiving yards in a game since Reggie Kelly had 119 yards against South Carolina in 1997. Green set a career best in catches and yards in a single game, including a 50-yard TD.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Sophomore Jerrard Tarrant returned punts for touchdowns in each of the first two games of his college career -- 68 yards vs. Jacksonville State and 85 yards against Clemson. He ranks fourth nationally in punt return average. Chandler Anderson ranks second in the ACC in punting (42.8 ypa) and Blair ranks tied for second in field goals made (1.5 mpg).

First-year punter Heath Hutchins and kicker Sean Brauchle have each made strong impressions early in their careers. Hutchins ranks fourth in the SEC with a 42.62 yard-per-punt average, and in 20 of his 21 punts has allowed only 11 punt return yards. Brauchle missed his first two attempts as a Bulldog, but since then has made six consecutive tries, including a 49-yarder at Vanderbilt.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN TEXAS A&M HAS THE BALL

In his second season as a starter, quarterback Jerrod Johnson has been nothing short of brilliant in the first three games of 2009. The Big 12's top rushing quarterback (65.3 yard per game) also averages over 300 passing yards (320.3) and nearly 400 yards of total offense (385.7) per game. Johnson leads the nation in points responsible for with an average of 26.0 points per game (9 passing TDs, 4 rushing TDs). Sheppard has led the Razorbacks in tackles for loss each of the last two seasons. Malcolm Sheppard has had at least half of a tackle for a loss in each of the last 11 games. Wendel Davis is tied for the team lead in tackles with Matt Harris as the two have 19 each. Davis led the squad in tackles in the season opener against Missouri State and against Georgia. He is tied for second on the team in tackles for loss (2.5). Jerry Franklin started his 15th-straight game at Alabama.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN ARKANSAS HAS THE BALL

The Aggies are the NCAA leaders in quarterback sacks per game just a season after posting just 16 sacks for the entire 2008 season and ranking No. 100 in the NCAA statistics. Led by NCAA individual leader Jack Von Miller, the Aggies have sacked the opposing quarterback 14 times in three games or an NCAA-best 4.67 per game. Miller has contributed eight sacks, and defensive mates LB Kyle Mangan, DL Tony Jerod-Eddie, DL Eddie Brown, "jack" Matt Featherston and DE Matt Moss have combined for six more.

Through three games, Ryan Mallett has thrown for 877 yards and seven touchdowns. In just 12 quarters, Mallett has thrown for as many or more touchdowns than the Razorbacks did all season 24 times (records dating back to 1947). Michael Smith led all rushers against Alabama with 12 carries for 61 yards. He has now rushed for 1,775 yards and 15 career touchdowns. Greg Childs leads the team with three touchdown receptions this season (two vs. Georgia, one at Alabama). Last season, D.J. Williams and Andrew Davie led the Razorbacks with three touchdown receptions.

SPECIAL TEAMS

After the season-opener head coach Mike Sherman termed the Aggies' punt game "serviceable, but not a winning effort necessarily." Now three games into the season, the Aggies rank No. 7 nationally in net punting with a 42.0 average. First-year punter Ken Wood, a sophomore transfer from Montana, is averaging a healthy 44.0 yards on 11 punts and has left four boots inside the opponent 20-yard line. Only three of Woods' punts have been returned, for a total of two yards.

Against Alabama Dennis Johnson returned three kickoffs for 81 yards to bring his career total to 1,164 yards, which ranks as the fourth highest total in school history. The Razorbacks converted their first fake punt of the season at Alabama on a nine-yard run by Ronnie Wingo, Jr. The play came on fourth and six at the Arkansas 25-yard line. Alex Tejada remains perfect on the year going 1-of-1 on extra-point tries. He is now 4-of-4 on field goal attempts and 12--of-12 on extra-point opportunities.

He converted on a career-long field 49-yard field goal to seal Tennessee's win over Ohio and is six-of-seven on the season.
