Auburn Outback Bowl Post-Game Notes

Auburn vs. Northwestern
Raymond James Stadium
January 1, 2010

- Auburn team captains were QB Chris Todd and DE Antonio Coleman.
- Auburn won the toss and deferred to the second half. Northwestern chose to receive and Auburn defended the south end zone.
- Kickoff was at 11:03 a.m. ET.
- Attendance was announced as 49,383.

TEAM NOTES

- This was Auburn's second straight overtime bowl victory as Auburn defeated Clemson 23-20 in the 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl.
- Auburn has now won three straight bowl games, all by three points apiece. The Tigers defeated Northwestern 38-35 in overtime in the Outback Bowl, defeated Clemson 23-20 in overtime in the 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl and defeated Nebraska 17-14 in the 2007 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic.
- Auburn's 38 points set a Tigers bowl record, eclipsing the 35 Auburn scored in a 35-28 Gator Bowl victory over Ole Miss in 1971. The 73 combined points by both Auburn and Northwestern also set an Auburn bowl record that was also previously held in the 1971 Gator Bowl.
- Auburn played in its 35th bowl game, which is 16th most among FBS schools. The Tigers are now 20-13-2 all-time in bowl games and have won three in a row.
- Gene Chizik, who is the first Auburn first-year head coach to take the Tigers to a bowl game, is now 7-0 all-time in bowl games, including a 6-0 record as an assistant.
- Auburn is now 7-3-2 all-time against current members of the Big Ten, including a 7-3 record in bowl games. It was Auburn's first ever game against Northwestern.
- Auburn scored 38 points, and finished the season with 433 points, which is second most in school history, just missing the record of 438 points by the 1995 Tigers.
- Auburn finished with 425 total yards of offense, and finished the season with 5,613 yards, breaking the previous school record of 5,469 set in 2004. Auburn also set a team single-season record with 914 offensive plays, breaking the previous record of 911 set in 1984.
- Auburn had 235 passing yards to finish the season with 2,857, which is the fifth-highest total in school history.
- Auburn had one touchdown pass, tying the team record for the most TD passes in a single season with 25.
- Auburn had 190 yards rushing, and finished the season with 2,756 yards rushing, which is the seventh-best single-season total in school history.
- Auburn had 18 first downs and finished the season with 266, which is the second-highest single-season total in Auburn history.
- Auburn has now won 56 consecutive games when scoring 30 or more points in a game, and is 276-4 all-time. The last time Auburn lost a game when scoring at least 30 points was in 1996, when the Tigers dropped a 56-49 contest to Georgia in four overtimes.
- Auburn now owns a 5-5 all-time record in overtime games, and has won two straight.
- Auburn collected three interceptions in the first half and five overall, after picking off just three passes in its previous six games combined. Auburn also had five interceptions against West Virginia Sept. 19. It marked the first time Northwestern quarterback Mike Kafka had ever been picked off more than three times in a game.
- Auburn had three scoring drives that took less than two minutes, marking the Tigers' 27th, 28th and 29th scoring drives this season that took less than two minutes, and 26 of those 29 drives resulted in touchdowns.
- Auburn scored first on a 1-yard TD run by Kodi Burns. The Tigers are now 5-3 this season when scoring first.
- Auburn's opening-drive TD marked the fourth straight game that Auburn scored a touchdown on its opening drive, and the fifth straight time Auburn scored points via a TD or field goal.
- Auburn led 21-7 at halftime. The Tigers are now 7-2 when leading at halftime this season.
- The score was tied 21-21 after three quarters. The Tigers are now 1-1 this season when tied after three quarters.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

- Darwin Adams was named the Outback Bowl MVP for his Outback Bowl record-tying 12 receptions for a career-high 142 yards. His 60 catches this year set a new school record, surpassing the previous mark of 58 by Willie Goshua (1995) and Frank Sanders (1994), and his 997 receiving yards are the third best behind Ronney

Daniels (1068) and Terry Beasley (1051). It was his fourth 100-yard receiving game of the season.

- Ben Tate rushed 20 times for 108 yards, pushing his season total to 1,362 yards, moving past James Brooks (1980), Carnell Williams (2003), Kenny Irons (2005) and Stephen Davis (1994) for the fourth-best single-season total in school history.
- Tate's career rushing total is now 3,321, which is fifth best in school history, just 47 yards behind Joe Cribbs for fourth.
- Tate's 5-yard TD rush in the fourth quarter was his 23rd career rushing TD and ninth this season and he followed that with a 7-yard TD rush for his 24th career rushing TD. The 24 TDs are tied for the sixth most in school history with Brent Fullwood (1983-86) and James Brooks (1977-80).
- Chris Todd completed 20-of-31 passes for 235 yards and a touchdown, extending his own school single-season record to 22 passing touchdowns in a season. He finished the season with 2,612 yards passing, which is the third-best total in school history, and his 198 pass completions also ranks third.
- Wes Byrum set new school records for points scored by a kicker and extra points in a season during the contest. Byrum finished the season with 99 points and 54 extra points, breaking the records of 94 points and 51 extra points set by John Vaughn in 2006 and 2004, respectively. His 99 points are the fourth most by any Auburn player in a single season.
- Byrum also pushed his career points total to 240, moving past Al Del Greco (1980-83) for fifth on Auburn's career scoring list.
- Walter McFadden had two interceptions, including a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown in the first quarter. It was his third career interception returned for a score and second this season, and the longest interception return in Auburn history and Outback Bowl history. The previous longest interception return in school history was a 98-yarder by John Liptak vs. Georgia in 1947. The longest in Outback history was 88 yards by Dwayne Rudd of Alabama in 1997. It was the 15th 100-yard interception return in SEC history.
- McFadden now has two of the four longest interception returns in Auburn history. His 93-yard return for a score vs. Tennessee Tech in 2007 ranks fourth in school history.
- McFadden now has nine career interceptions and six this season. His six picks are tied for fifth most in a single season in school history and most since Junior Rosegreen had six in 2004.
- Kodi Burns ended Auburn's opening drive with a 1-yard touchdown plunge. It was his 13th career rushing touchdown and fifth this season, but first since the Mississippi State game Sept. 12. All five of his rushing touchdowns this season have been from one yard out.
- T'Sharvan Bell had his second and third career interceptions, getting one in the second quarter and one in the fourth. His first interception of the season came late in the game against Mississippi State earlier this season.
- Quinardius Carr caught his first career touchdown pass in the second quarter, hauling in a 46-yard pass from Chris Todd. It was just his second catch of the season and eighth of his career, and a new career long. His previous long was a 32-yard catch this season at Arkansas.
- Neiko Thorpe had his second interception of the season and the fourth of his career in the third quarter. He also finished with a career high 14 tackles, topping his previous high of 11 set earlier this season at Arkansas.
- Antonio Coleman collected his 10th sack of the season and finished with 24.5 for his career. His 10 sacks ties for fourth most in a single season in school history, and he remains third in school history for career sacks.
- Demond Washington returned four kickoffs for 111 yards, finishing the season with a school-record average of 31.1 yards per return (16 returns for 497 yards). The previous record was 28.3 by David Langner in 1972.

NORTHWESTERN vs. AUBURN

Auburn 38, Northwestern 35 (OT)

2010 Outback Bowl

Jan. 1, 2010

Raymond James Stadium • Tampa, Fla.

Northwestern Post-Game Notes

- Northwestern made its eighth postseason appearance today, and its seventh since the 1995-96 season. This is the third time that Northwestern has played a New Year's Day Bowl game since that season (Jan. 1, 1996 in the Rose Bowl; Jan. 1, 1997 in the Citrus Bowl (now Capital One Bowl); and Jan. 1, 2010 in the Outback Bowl—NU's first appearance in the Outback.)
- This is the ninth all-time game for Northwestern versus a Southeastern Conference team. It is the Wildcats' first meeting with Auburn. It is Northwestern's first game vs. an SEC school since the Wildcats played Tennessee in the 1997 Citrus Bowl.
- NU finished the season 8-5, giving the Wildcats 17 wins in the past two years—third most for back-to-back seasons.
- QB Mike Kafka finished the game 47-of-78 for a career-high 532 yards, 4 TD's. (pass attempts, completions and yards are all school records.) He closes his career with 4,265 passing yards, eighth-most on NU's career list. He also finished the season with 3,430 passing yards, the third-most in school history.
- Kafka set an Outback Bowl, Northwestern and Northwestern bowl record with 532 passing yards. The previous Outback mark was held by Purdue's Drew Brees, who had 378 yards in 2000 (vs. Georgia). NU's previous single-game school mark for passing yardage was 520 yards (C.J. Bacher vs. Michigan State, 2007). NU's previous bowl record was 416 yards by Brett Basanez.
- Kafka totaled a school- and bowl-record 566 yards of total offense today, giving him 3,729 yards for the season which is second-most in a single season for Northwestern. He totaled 5,156 career yards, good for eighth place on NU's all-time list.
- Mike Kafka's string of passes without an interception ended at 117 when his second pass of the game, a short pass to Scott Concannon, deflected off Concannon's hands and to Auburn DB Walter McFadden.
- WR Zeke Markshausen, who came into the game ranked second in the Big Ten and 19th nationally in receptions per game, totaled 12 catches today for 84 yards. He closes the year with 91 catches, second on NU's all-time single-season list behind Richard Buchanan's 94 catches in 1989.
- WR Andrew Brewer caught a 39-yard pass on NU's first scoring drive of the game. In the third quarter, he caught a 35-yard TD pass. In the fourth quarter, he threw a two-point PAT pass to tie the game. The touchdown receptions were Brewer's team-leading eighth and ninth TD receptions of the year and his sixth and seventh of the season at 20 yards or greater. His nine TD's ties him for second place on NU's single-season TD reception list (with Richard Buchanan, 1989, and D'Wayne Bates, 1998).
- Brewer closed the season with 57 catches for 925 yards.
- SB Drake Dunsmore's 66-yard TD reception was a career-long reception. His previous career-long was 35 yards, accomplished against Duke in 2007. He finished with a career-high 120 receiving yards.

Dunsmore and Brewer both finished with 100-plus yard receiving games.

- Redshirt freshman OG Brian Mulroe made his first career start today at left offensive guard. NU's starting offensive line today consisted of two redshirt freshmen and three sophomores.
- S Brendan Smith became the first player in NU history to play and start in a third bowl game. Smith started the 2005 Sun Bowl game vs. UCLA as well as last year's Valero Alamo Bowl vs. Missouri.
- WR Sidney Stewart finished with a career-high 10 catches for a career-most 97 yards.
- DE Corey Wootton made his 49th career start today—an NU record.
- CB Sherrick McManis picked off his team-leading fifth interception today (late second quarter) and the ninth of his career. The nine career interceptions move him into a sixth-place tie on NU's all-time list (tied with Willie Lindsey, 1989-92).
- Northwestern notched two more interceptions today, giving them 17 for the season. The Wildcats came into the game ranked 22nd nationally in passes intercepted.
- Northwestern totaled a season-high 625 yards of total offense, its sixth game with 400 or more yards of total offense this year. NU closed the season with three straight 400-or-more yard games. It was the first time NU totaled 600 or more yards of offense when it had 611 yards vs. Michigan State on Oct. 6, 2007.
- Northwestern fell to 8-3 all-time in overtime, having lost its last two OT games—2008 Valero Alamo Bowl (vs. Missouri, 30-23 OT loss) and 2010 Outback Bowl (38-35 OT loss).

Opening Statement...

To the Outback Bowl, I think we created a lot of great friendships here in the past week. I want to say what a great experience it was here for our whole football team. Our football team thoroughly enjoyed the whole experience. From the time we got here to the time we left, it was a first class organization all of the way around. Everything was done first class. I want to say thank you and we felt very blessed just to be here and to be able to play in this bowl game. Our players and coaches felt that, so I just want to say thank you. It was a great week.

I want to say thank you to our Auburn fans who showed up. I know everybody got their money's worth that's for sure.

I'm not so sure I've ever gone into a game with seven wins and come out with 10. I think we had to win that thing about three times. It was fun.

Northwestern is a great football team and my hat is off to Pat, their administration and their young men. Those guys are class guys. They fought us down to the end.

I haven't had time to see many bowl games up to this point this year, but it will be hard pressed to find one better than that one as far as getting your money's worth.

I want to say something to our seniors who I just spoke to in the locker room and to our whole football team. These are young guys who I couldn't be more proud of. They fought all of the way down to the end, through the overtimes and through all of the blunders we made and they kept playing and they kept fighting.

I couldn't be more proud of our football team. It wasn't always pretty and it wasn't always exactly the way we would have liked it, but at the end of the day we got our eighth win. I'm proud to say that I'm head football coach here at Auburn. What a great culmination to a great week.

To all of the people in the Tampa Bay area who put so much into this, I want to say thank you. This is my home town and I had a ball. I also want to thank my administration and all of the people who are so instrumental and mean so much to Auburn.

I'm exhausted. I'm tired. I'm going to go home and re-introduce myself to my family and have a great night. I'm blessed.

On Northwestern and the game ...

Northwestern kept coming back and fighting back and everything we did there was an answer for. I was disappointed in some of the things we did as a football team that are uncharacteristic of what we stand for. We had some personal fouls out there that were absolutely, 100 percent uncalled for. I don't like it. I don't like anything about it. We had the football game basically under control with a win and all we had to do was hold on to the football and we turned the ball over, which is absolutely uncharacteristic of our running back position. So there were some things that were disappointing in there and we shouldn't have had to win it that way. But when you win games it's not always necessarily that you win, sometimes it's how you win. As we talk about building a foundation for Auburn as we go, this was another way we build. We were in uncharted waters. We had never been in an overtime. The circumstances were very unusual. But we found a way to win and I'm very proud of them for that.

On defending the last play ...

Obviously with their kicker out there was a head's up. We saw a different guy come in and we were looking at a formation that doesn't look quite right. But people were yelling and talking. But for us to say that was a great coaching move is not right. The kids on the field recognized it. They had great awareness of what was going on. We are yelling it. We are seeing it. The players are 25-35 yards away from us so they really can't hear us. My hat is off to all of those guys for recognizing what was going on and making a great play at the end. They just sold their bodies out to make the play.

On the number of players available at the end of the game ...

By the end of the day we were looking for trainers and managers and anybody who could suit up to go in there because we didn't have anybody left. We're IV'ing people at halftime. We have 52 plays on defense at halftime, which is incredible. We weren't sustaining any drives on offense long enough to keep them off the field. They did a great job of getting first downs . It was just the perfect storm.

But let me tell you something, look at Walter McFadden. They are going to block the kick at the end and he about knocks himself out because they run into everybody. But that's the Auburn way. That's the way those guys are. They are going to fight down to the end. They were carrying them off left and right. But they always found a way to get back up and go another snap. So again, I'm really proud of them.

On not seeing a holder on the last play ...

It happened very, very fast. We were trying to figure out which guy was their next kicker. That's a lot of moving parts and it happens fast down there. We obviously were aware that their kicker was carried off, so what's the next thing? We talked to the players about that, and again it carried over for them and they were made aware of that.

On pressuring the Northwestern quarterback ...

It was a little bit of a blitz. At times we were aggressive and at times we weren't. Niko (Mafuli) came through. We had an all out blitz on and Nik came through on the one, but got a facemask penalty. Our defensive ends and our inside guys were getting good push on four-man pressures at times. At the end, there was no guru of Xs and Os or anything like that. That was effort. Our defensive effort at the end to keep them out of the end zone was extraordinary.

Have you ever been in a game like this with the thrill of victory and agony of defeat ...

Absolutely not. I've been in some wild games that have come down to the end numerous times. But one that goes back and forth, did we win, did we not win? Reviewable plays. Is he down, is he not down? We didn't know what to do. That was wild and crazy.

On adjusting to the Northwestern passing offense ...

They throw the ball 70 times, if I'm correct. Going into the game we knew they'd try to run the ball some, but we also knew they were going to throw the football. They have a very controlled passing game. He gets the ball out very quick so we had to do a good job of disguising some things early in the game, which I thought we did a good job of. Any time you get five interceptions in a football game, there are some good things going on. Let's be mindful that they threw 70-plus times. Did we always play great? No. The thing that is glaring to me is that we gave up the deep ball. Those are back breakers. We gave up the deep ball and we had a couple of pass interference calls. Those types of things are very hard to overcome. That kept us on the field which is why we are depleted in the secondary anyway, which is why we saw them moving the chains a little bit more and keep us off the field more than we would like to. We did have five interceptions and we tried to keep the ball in front of us the best we could.

On T'Sharvan Bell's two interceptions ...

I'm very proud of the team effort. He hasn't played a lot. He was injured early in the season and had all kinds of issues with his knees and ankles. There was always something. We had to count on him today. We planned on him playing in the game but we didn't plan on him playing as much as he did. He came in and he delivered. He played more than we anticipated him playing but he had to because of the nature of our secondary situation.

On Walter McFadden...

Walter is one of those guys who laid it on the line today. He is probably still laying out in the locker room right now. He is just another senior who stood up to the plate and delivered. A great Auburn man. We are going to miss him and he means a lot to our football team. He is a great young man. He is what Auburn is all about. I'm really proud of him and how he finished his senior year.

How important is it to win a game like this today ...

It's very big for our future. It's very big for Auburn.

Opening Statement...

First and foremost to the entire Outback committee, City of Tampa and all the great volunteers, I couldn't have asked for a better week and a greater experience for our football family that is absolutely amazing and for that we will forever be indebted, forever be grateful. We have 21 great seniors that will have a deep wound that would heal. It will get better. It will improve. But that's the heart of the Wildcat right there and that was one heck of a fight and one heck of a battle. You probably read the quote from me earlier in the month, we are coming down here to win. We felt like our stars were align at the end and we lost Stefan. That was one of Coach (Randy) Walker's favorite plays at the end. We played for the win but fell a little short. One heck of a game. Congratulations to Gene, Auburn University and the football team. It was a great battle. We are going to find a way to climb over this mountain top. We are not there yet but I believe we took a step forward today. We are still not there yet and to that, it is disappointing.

As far as words about the seniors... I don't have enough time to talk about them. They mean the world to me and the program and we will be forever indebted to them. To coaching staff, wives, virtue of athletics, our president, our administration, all of our fans that were here today sticking through thick and thin, we cannot thank you enough for the support or your sacrifice. We will heal up our wounds and go home and enjoy the New Year. We will be on the road as coaches finishing up recruiting a great class. It may be the best class we have. I cannot wait to get to winter workouts here in a couple of weeks. With that, Happy New Year and Go 'Cats.

Did you have a backup kicker and if he makes the field goal in overtime, do you take the points of the board and take the penalty?

We do have a backup kicker in Steve Flarherty and hasn't kicked but maybe one kick all year. So when stuff when down we felt to put ourselves in position to go for it and that's what we did. Yes, like I said, we were playing for the win. Without a doubt.

Describe final play a little more and exactly what you did...

It was a modern day fumble-roosky. We were trying to sneak Zeke [Markshausen] out the back door and Auburn did a nice job of defending it. It looked like we were a little quick. We wanted to hold it a few seconds and get them to see our motion, our shift and they did a great job defending it.

When did you realize you were going to go with that play...

About a nanosecond before I did it. I had it my back pocket for four years. People tell me I'm too conservative so I said what the heck, we are here to win so let's go. I would do it again but next time I would score and we would be celebrating.

I asked Mike (Kafka) two or three days ago, fourth and goal, end of the game, do you have a play? He said yes we do but I can't tell you but it's definitely a pass. If you could have ran that in overtime do you think that's the game right there?

Hindsight would be 20/20. There were so many things in this game. If you want to talk about every element, we had rain, we had a glimpse of sun, turnovers, big plays, big plays in the kicking game, bad plays, turnovers on our end and missed assignments, so there is a lot to fix and a lot to correct. We take it squarely on our shoulders as coaches. We didn't find a way to win. We didn't get the job done. We have got to do a better job to give our guys the ball and that's why they call us coaches. It's disappointing. I am very frustrated from my end in the job that I did for our players. But I promised I will get it fixed.

What's it like in the locker room now?...

It's down. It's a deep wound and a wound hurts. But the wound will heal. What our 21 seniors will take away as a group, is that it has responded from as much adversity has any group of seniors has in the country. Think about what they have been able to accomplish...get us the third most wins in school history and that's pretty special. You saw their fight in what they played today.

Condition of kicker? Definitely out for the rest of the game...

I was told he was done.

Kafka characteristics today, throwing picks...

I think he would want some throws back. Mike is the reason why we're here and Mike is the reason why we got into overtime and the chance to win the game. You've got to tip your hat to him. You've got to think about how far he has come in the last four years, I couldn't be more proud of Mike. He is a fighter. I hope the NFL sees the same thing I see. A young man with a big time arm who I think just going to continue to get better.

Did you practice the quick fumble-roosky recently...

For a month.

Did you discuss it with anyone else before you made that decision...

No. That is my call. Go back and check your facts. I said a month ago, we'd play to win. I'd do it again, and twice on Sunday.

I talked with your offensive coordinator before the game and he expected some man-to-man. Did you hit a lot more man-to-man than you thought you would...

No, they stayed pretty true to their form. There were tweaks on both sides that they had. But at the end of the day we saw what we expected to see and Gene would probably say he saw what he expected to see. In bowl game you can't untrick yourselves.

Was it Zeke who ran the ball on that play...

The way we had it this time, Yes.

I don't think we weren't moving balls on offense, we just stopped ourselves with tough turnovers. Two turnovers in the red zone really took points off the board and is probably a different outcome. You talk about staying the course, executing, continuing to fight and keep on swinging and that's what our young men did. Being down 14, we have been there before. I think we have been down 23. There is no quit in our guys, especially with their attitude. Credit goes to Auburn, they made plays early and we didn't, but we kept on fighting and we down 14 with four minutes left in the fourth. Big plays were made all over the place.

OUTBACK BOWL POST-GAME QUOTES

January 1, 2010

AUBURN TIGERS

Outback Bowl MVP Darvin Adams, Auburn, WR

On making 12 catches ...

I just appreciate all of the coaches, Coach [Gus] Malzahn and Chris [Todd], giving me a chance to catch all of those balls. The offensive line did a great job protecting him. I'm just glad everything worked out perfectly.

On the emotion and uncertainty at the end ...

It was pretty tough going through all of that, at least three kicks. But it doesn't matter now, because we won.

On the importance of winning the game ...

It is very important. First of all, just to send the seniors out in a big way, and to get things started off in the right way for next year.

On winning MVP ...

It means a lot to be the MVP of a bowl game. It's not all me though. First of all I want to thank God. Next comes Chris [Todd] and the offensive linemen and the coaching staff.

On the relationship with quarterback Chris Todd ...

Chris and I have done the extra things to get that relationship good between a receiver and a quarterback. I think it pays off a lot.

Did you make the catch that was called incomplete ...

I think I did. I think I wrapped my arms around it, but the officials called it incomplete so we had to go with it.

Quarterback Chris Todd

On Outback Bowl MVP Darvin Adams:

"He's been a huge playmaker for us all year long. He's done a great job. Being able to trust a guy makes your life a lot easier as a quarterback. He made some big plays for us today."

On the momentum swings in the game:

"I didn't know what to think. Everybody kept fighting; the defense fought their butts off and did a great job. Everybody fought all the way to the end. I can't be more proud of our guys."

On winning the Outback Bowl:

"I think it's a great way to really finish out a season. I'm very happy for all of our seniors the way it ended up and the way the rest of the team was behind us and fought to the end. I think it's a great way to finish up the year."

Defensive end Antonio Coleman

On quarterback Mike Kafka:

“He’s a great quarterback; you can’t take anything away from him. He had some big passes and great effort. He had a great game but we came out on top.”

On coming back to Auburn and winning the Outback Bowl:

“I took it tough last year, sending the season out like that. That’s why I came back, to turn this program around. Like I said before, it’s on the rise.”

On holding off the Wildcats in overtime:

“You can say we won the game three times, but it’s null and void. We had to get back out there. We can’t get out there and tell the referee what to do. They made the calls, we just got out there, we sucked it up and we won the ballgame.”

On his performance in the Outback Bowl:

“I was laying it all on the line, hurt back and everything. I just gave it all I got. I told the guys before we went out of the locker room just give me all you’ve got because I’m going to give you everything I’ve got. You’ve going to drag me off the field.”

Defensive back Walter McFadden

On his 100-yard interception return for a touchdown:

“On the 100 yard return, when they had No. 80 in the game, we knew that they were going to max protect and that’s when I get the post corner. I undercut the post corner and batted the ball to myself. I knew it had to be zipped in because it was a short distance. I tipped it up to myself and I happened to run it all the way back. When I was a sophomore I returned one 96 yards and as I was running I thought to myself ‘man, I broke the record’. I’m an Auburn man and I wanted to be remembered.”

Tailback Ben Tate

On the future of the Auburn program:

“I see a great one, a very, very good future. Coach is bringing in some good recruits and the sky is the limit.”

On winning the Outback Bowl in overtime:

“We definitely had a little bit of luck, but we also worked hard.”

On Northwestern:

“They’re a good team, they fought hard and they never gave up.”

On the Auburn defense making a stop to end the game:

“I knew the defense was in good hands and Neiko (Thorpe) came up with a big play at the end and basically won the game for us.”

On fumbling in the fourth quarter:

“It was tough on me, knowing I fumbled it. It was more of, okay I fumbled, now what can I do to make up for this. How can I help my team win the game? That’s what I tried to do. I tried to concentrate and refocus and coach had faith in me and gave me the ball again in overtime, so I did what I had to do to help the team.”

On playing in a record-breaking Outback Bowl:

“It was a great game to be a part of and I think it will be a memorable game for a lot of people.”

Safety T’Sharvan Bell

On the defense forcing Mike Kafka to throw five interceptions:

“I give credit to the defensive line. They had him moving around and very uncomfortable back there. I told them if you get pressure on the quarterback we’ll make plays in the secondary.”

On intercepting to Kafka passes:

“They called my number and I saw the ball in the air and made plays when I had to.”

OUTBACK BOWL POST-GAME QUOTES

NORTHWESTERN WILDCATS

Quarterback Mike Kafka

On his record five interceptions in the Outback Bowl:

“On one of them the DB made a great play. On the one before the half I should have thrown it away. It’s just one of those things, and like I say, I’ll grow from it. I wish I had them back but Auburn made the plays that needed to be made, so hats off to them.”

On losing to Auburn in overtime:

“A loss is a loss anyway you put it, it’s a loss. If you take care of the football a little better, and I take full responsibility of that. We just needed to make plays and we didn’t.”

On the Northwestern defense:

“Our defense played great. They made some big plays, the big fumble, to stay in the game, some timely picks. I think we just needed to capitalize on a lot of the things that we did, and not spot 14 points to a team early in the game. That’s killed us, and I think all season that’s kind of what we’ve done and it’s really bit us and luckily we’ve been able to pull it out. But today, against a good team like that, we weren’t able to.”

On tight end Drake Dunsmore’s 66-yard touchdown:

“That was just the man making a play. Drake made a great play. It was man coverage, it was a one-on-one battle and he won and put it down the sideline. It was a great play.”

On going for the win in overtime:

“I know it was a good call. We had them. We were one tackle away, one yard away. In the end that’s all there is to it. Coach Fitz had that call and we all were excited. They sniffed it out and they got it, so you’ve got to give them credit because they made a big play.”

Defensive end Corey Wootton

On coming back against Auburn and having a chance to win:

“There was no doubt in my mind that we were going to win that game. It came down to a couple of plays. I thought we were going to get it at the end of the game with the field goal, but it didn’t work out that way. When we were driving on the last play, that little fake play we have, I thought we were going to have it, but we came up a yard short.”

On the final play in overtime:

“I feel like it was a great call. I definitely didn’t think they expected it, but they had run something similar to that, so they kind of ran out as soon as the play was snapped. I was blocking the guy, I was trying to force him to the sideline and he ended up making the play. We had worked on it all week and we knew what we were going to do, we just came out short.”

On the series of calls late in the game and in overtime:

“It was crazy. It’s good for the fans, that type of excitement, but it’s not good for us. Whenever you have a game like that, it’s tough for the players.”

On finishing his career at Northwestern:

“My experience here at Northwestern has been amazing. I wouldn’t trade it for anything. I’m so glad I came here. I love each and every one of the members on the football team and these seniors have done a tremendous job. It’s something I’ll remember forever.”

Cornerback Sherrick McManis

On Coach Fitzgerald’s decision to go for the win in overtime:

“It’s a decision that he made which I thought was a good one. If we would have made it, it would have been a great decision. It’s a play we had and it could have worked.”

On the back and forth nature of the game:

“The whole time I believe everybody on the sideline believed we could win this game, we were going to win this game, and it just didn’t turn out this way.”

On quarterback Mike Kafka:

“Mike Kafka is a warrior. He’s always going to keep continuing to fight and he always puts us in position to win the game at the end, which he did.”

Tight end Drake Dunsmore

On coming back to take the game to overtime:

“We never lost hope. We felt we were going to win.”

On the turning point in the game:

“Drew’s (Andrew Brewer) catches were both huge momentum swings for us. There were so many turning points in this game.”

On his 66-yard touchdown to pull the Wildcats even in the third quarter:

“When you’re in the heat of the play you really don’t think about it. If you’re still on your feet you keep going the direction of the end zone, and that’s what I did.”

On going for the win in overtime:

We practiced that play all year. I loved it, I loved that call. It’s kind of a chaos play by design. I’m not really in on that play, so I don’t know if they broke it too early or not. I thought he was going to make it.”
