Ty Tucker
Head Coach
13th season

Head coach Ty Tucker, the 2009 ITA National Coach of the Year and the recipient of six-consecutive Big Ten Coach of the Year honors (2006-11), has lifted the Ohio State men's tennis team to elite status. He has proved to the nation his squads are capable of defeating many of the country's top teams since taking over the program in 1999.

Since his inaugural season in 1999-00, Tucker has guided Ohio State to six regular-season Big Ten Conference titles and seven league tournament championships, including six-consecutive from 2006-11. Tucker's teams have never finished below fourth in the conference regular-season standings. In fact, after tying for fourth in 2000, Tucker and the Buckeyes finished second from 2001-2005 before winning the conference the last six seasons. Since that 2000 campaign, the Scarlet and Gray have won at least 20 matches each season and at least 30 the past four seasons.

In NCAA action, Tucker and the Buckeyes have compiled a 29-12 record, advancing to the program's first NCAA championship final in 2009 in College Station, Texas. Tucker led Ohio State as far as the quarterfinals last season and also in 2004, '06, '07 and '08. Tucker also has coached eight different singles players and seven doubles tandems in 10 NCAA championships.

A six-time Big Ten and four-time ITA Region IV Coach of the Year, Tucker has coached 11 All-Americans, most recently Chase Buchanan and Blaz Rola in 2011. Tucker has also mentored 2008 All-American Justin Kronauge, Jeremy Wurtzman (2004), who was the ITA/Farnsworth National Senior co-Player of the Year in 2004, Ross Wilson (2005, '06), Scott Green (2005, '06), Drew Eberly (2008), Bryan Koniecko (2009) and Steven Moneke (2009). Tucker witnessed three of his players reach the top of the ITA singles national rankings in Wurtzman (2004), Moneke (2007) and Koniecko (2009). Koniecko and Moneke are also the only Buckeyes in program history to have four All-America honors.

In 2003, Vincent Ng, who later went on to become the Big Ten Conference Athlete of the Year, was Tucker's first Big Ten singles champion, followed by Joey Atas, the 2004 Big Ten Freshman of the Year. The Buckeyes garnered back-to-back conference freshman of the year accolades when Koniecko won in 2006 and Kronauge in '07. Kronauge also won ITA Midwest Freshman of the Year in 2007. In 2008 and 2009, Tucker guided Koniecko to back-to-back Big Ten Athlete of the Year honors. Last season, Buchanan also earned Big Ten Athlete of the Year laurels, becoming the first sophomore in Ohio State history to earn the distinction. During Tucker's tenure, 12 Buckeyes have been named All-Big Ten.

In 2010, the Buckeyes came within a win of tying the school record for most wins, which was set in 2009 (36). They finished with a 35-2 record and achieved the second highest winning percentage in school history (.946). Under Tucker, the Scarlet and Gray went 13-0 in Big Ten play and advanced to the NCAA team quarterfinals for the fifth-consecutive year. Ohio State finished the season ranked fifth nationally in the ITA rankings, marking the 10th-consecutive year it finished in the Top 25. In dual competition, the Buckeyes outscored their opponents, 125-12, in Columbus, Ohio, and extended their home win streak to 110-consecutive matches, dating back to the 2002-03 season.

Also in 2010, graduating senior and now-assistant coach, Justin Kronauge became the all-time program leader in singles wins (147), doubles wins (133) and overall career wins (280).

The 2009 season marked the best results the men's tennis program has ever witnessed, including the program's best winning percentage of .948 with an overall record of 36-2. The Buckeyes also advanced to the NCAA final championship.

During the fall season of the 2008-09 campaign, Koniecko won both singles titles at the Wilson/ITA Midwest Regional Championship and the ITA National Indoor Championship. Koniecko defeated teammate Kronauge in both finals. The all-Buckeye national indoor championship marked only the second time in the history of the tournament two teammates faced each other in the singles final.

In 2008, Kronauge first put his name in the Ohio State record books after compiling a single-season singles record of 41-8, which now is tied for fifth all-time. Tucker coached Kronauge and Moneke to the quarterfinals of the NCAA singles championships that season and the team advanced to the quarterfinals for the third-straight year. Owning a 257-49 overall record and a 113-17 ledger vs. the Big Ten, Tucker captured his 200th career win after a 6-1 victory over Minnesota March 9, 2008, in Minneapolis.

The All-American duo of Koniecko and Moneke was instrumental in Tucker and the Buckeyes' successful 2007 campaign. The Buckeyes finished the season with a 30-2 record and a second-consecutive regular-season Big Ten crown. Ohio State went 10-0 during regular-season conference play and finished third nationally in the ITA rankings.

The 2006 season was the beginning of the Buckeyes' dominance in the league. Recording a 28-2 ledger, Ohio State relinquished its second-place league standing from the past five seasons to win the regular-season and tournament titles. The squad also received its seventh-consecutive bid to the NCAA team championship and hosted the first two rounds for the first time in program history.

It was also during this season, Green and Wilson cemented their place among the all-time collegiate tennis greats, as they became the first tandem in the 27 years of the ITA National Indoor Championships to win consecutive titles and the first doubles team in Ohio State history to win a national tournament.

Green and Wilson ended their careers as one of only three doubles teams in the nation to win three ITA national titles after also capturing the ITA All-American Championships in 2004.

Before taking over the Ohio State head coaching job, Tucker served as the Buckeyes' assistant coach for two seasons. He was responsible for U.S. recruiting and on-court development. Tucker was the main force behind the recruitment of both Phil Metz and Ng.

Tucker is accustomed to success in tennis. He left Ohio State in 1992 after his junior year to play on the professional circuit. He achieved a world ranking of No. 273 and in 1994 was ranked as high as No. 35 in the U.S. He earned significant wins over Tim Henman, Hendrik Dreekman and Sargis Sargisian and defeated Jimmy Arias to win the Novi Auto Mall Professional Tennis Challenge in Michigan. Tucker also played in more than 40 foreign tournaments between 1992 and 1995. In 2004, Tucker was inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

Tucker, a native of Zanesville, Ohio, earned three letters from 1989 to 1991 during his collegiate career. Tucker is a two-time All-American. He captured the No. 1 singles position his freshman year and held it for three seasons. He secured his place in the Ohio State history book with his dominating play, finishing with 64 career singles wins. Tucker's success in tennis began at an early age. As a player on the junior circuit, he established himself by accumulating nine United States Tennis Association (USTA) National Junior titles and was a tournament finalist 11 times. Tucker notched victories over Andre Agassi, Michael Chang and Jim Courier.

When not on the courts, Tucker enjoys cooking and spending time and playing tennis with his daughter, Lakyn, a sophomore at New Albany High School, Lakyn enjoys playing lacrosse and volleyball, swimming and cheerleading.

Born May 1970, Tucker graduated from Ohio State in 1998 with a degree in anthropology.

Justin Kronauge

Assistant Coach
2nd season

Justin Kronauge is entering his second year as assistant coach for the Buckeyes. The Dayton, Ohio, native concluded his collegiate career during the spring of 2010 and earned his bachelor's degree in finance that August after posting one of the most successful careers in Ohio State men's tennis history.

"We are so excited to have Justin as our assistant," Ty Tucker, the 12th-year head coach, said. "He has a deep appreciation of what Ohio State athletics is about and he knows what we expect on the court. What more could I want for the tennis program at this great university."

A two-time All-American and the 2010 Midwest Region Farnsworth/ITA Senior Player of the Year, Kronauge concluded his historic Buckeye tennis career with multiple program records. He has the most career singles wins (147), most career doubles wins (128) and most combined wins with 275 victories. Furthermore, Kronauge, a three-time unanimous All-Big Ten recipient, is just the third Buckeye to have at least 100 singles and 100 doubles wins. He also became just the sixth Ohio State men's tennis player to reach 100 doubles wins.

Academically, Kronauge was a three-time Academic All-Big Ten and three-time Ohio State Scholar-Athlete honoree.

David Schilling

Volunteer Coach
12th season

David Schilling is part of head coach Ty Tucker's recipe for success. Schilling was recruited by Tucker in the fall of 1999 and since that time, he has proven to be a valuable asset for the Buckeyes.

"Dave has had experience coaching for some years now," Tucker said. "He can handle himself in any situation and is a great asset to the Buckeyes."

Schilling came to Ohio State after a highly-successful tenure at Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio, where he guided the Lords to an 87-36 record over six seasons, becoming the most successful coach in the program's history.

Schilling's Kenyon squads were ranked in the Top 25 for six-consecutive years and finished among the Top 3 in the North Coast Athletic Conference five times, including a championship in 1995. The NCAC is widely regarded as one of the premier tennis conferences in Division III.

Prior to Kenyon, Schilling served as the assistant coach for the nationally-ranked men's and women's tennis squads at Denison in Granville, Ohio. He also was an assistant coach at the College of Wooster (Ohio) for two years.

Schilling played at Denison from 1986-89, leading the Big Red to four-consecutive NCAC championships. He was nationally-ranked in singles and doubles for three-consecutive years and was named to the NCAC's 10th Anniversary All-Time men's tennis team in 1993.

He follows in his father's footsteps as a collegiate tennis coach. Schilling's father, Hayden, coaches at the College of Wooster, and has amassed more than 400 wins (436-269 .618) during his 31-year tenure with the men's tennis team.

Schilling graduated from Denison with a bachelor's degree in economics. He then received his master's degree in sports management from Ohio State.
