Infield Rules for French Field House

Only participating athletes, coaches with an infield pass and meet officials will be permitted in the infield area.

For the protection and safety of all participants, officials and spectators, all coaches, parents and non-competing athletes will be prohibited from entering the infield area of French Field House during all high school indoor meets.

Prohibited on the infield:

1. Hurdle warm-ups
2. Lawn chairs
3. Coolers
4. Snacks and beverages

All filming and photo opportunities by spectators must be taken from the bleachers designated for spectators. Only coaches with a coaching pass may film from the infield and from inside the coaching boxes only.

Coaching boxes will be established by meet management for the long and triple jumps, high jump and pole vault events. Only adult coaches of these events will be allowed in the coaching boxes. Failure to comply with these guidelines may result in the removal of your team from the facility.

Ohio State track officials and event staff will be monitoring the compliance of these infield rules throughout the entire meet.

Coaches, please assist us in the enforcement of these policies by notifying all athletes and parents in advance of attending meets in French Field House.
