ANNE WILKINSON HEAD COACH

Head coach Anne Wilkinson enters her 19th season at the helm of the Ohio State field hockey program in 2014 and is in her 27th season overall as a head coach. She brings an abundance of experience to the field, having coached over 400 career games and earning the 2006 Big Ten Coach of the Year award and was twice named the NFHCA West Region Coach of the Year honoree (2006 and 2010).

In 2012, Wilkinson claimed her 200th victory at Ohio State, becoming the first coach in program history to cap the 200-win milestone. With 294 career victories entering the 2014 season, she currently ranks 15th among Division I head coaches. Only 14 coaches have reached the 300-win mark.

Wilkinson has brought one of Ohio State's longest running women's athletic programs into the national spotlight. During her years with the Buckeyes, she has developed 22 All-America selections and 67 All-Region honorees as well as 66 All-Big Ten award winners. The Buckeyes have been ranked in the National Field Hockey Coaches Association polls throughout her tenure, reaching as high as No. 3 in the 2006 season, and have made five NCAA tournament appearances since 2001. In 2010, Wilkinson guided the program to its first NCAA Final Four appearance in OSU history, which included a single-season best 18 victories and a co-Big Ten regular season championship. In 2011, Wilkinson helped the Buckeyes to their third-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance - the first time an OSU squad has done so.

Ohio State has had 13 NFHCA All-America recipients over the last eight seasons, including first team honorees Jenn Sciulli in 2011, Aisling Coyle in 2010 and Linda Haussener in 2008. With her first team selections in 2006 and '07, Yesenia Luces became just the second Buckeye to earn multiple First Team All-America honors. Berta Queralt became the first Buckeye to earn back-to-back third-team laurels since Saskia Mueller accomplished the feat in 2004 and 2005. In 2011, Sciulli was honored as a first team selection, marking the eighth first team All-American in program history. Ohio State has had at least one All-America honoree in 13 of the last 14 seasons. A Buckeye has been named All-America in all but two seasons under the direction of Wilkinson.

In conference awards, Ohio State has earned seven Big Ten Player of the Year awards the last eight seasons - the first Big Ten Player of the Year recognitions in the history of Buckeye field hockey. In 2011, Jenn Sciulli became the second-consecutive Buckeye to be recognized as the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year after Aisling Coyle received the laurel in 2010 when Paula Pastor-Pitarque was the Freshman of the Year. In 2009, Queralt was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year. In 2008, midfielder Linda Haussener was named Co-Offensive Player of the Year. Yesenia Luces picked up back-to-back Offensive Player of the Year honors in 2006 and '07 and Saskia Mueller was named the overall Big Ten Player of the Year in 2006. Curlyne Wynn also earned the 2003 Big Ten Rookie of the Year award.

Under Wilkinson's guidance, the Buckeyes have garnered numerous awards in the classroom as well. In 17 years, Buckeyes have earned 86 NFHCA National Academic Squad awards, 107 Academic All-Big Ten selections, 163 OSU Scholar-Athletes accolades and three Big Ten Medal of Honor recipients - Linda Haussener in 2008-09, Saskia Mueller in 2006-07 and Allison Blanton in 2000-01.

Wilkinson is 294-228-9 in her 27 seasons as a head coach with a .598 mark during her tenure at Ohio State for the highest winning percentage of any head coach in the program's history. Of her 18 seasons with the Buckeyes, she has a winning percentage of .600 or better in 11 of those years with only three seasons below .500. On Nov. 4, 2005, Wilkinson recorded the 200th victory of her career when Ohio State defeated Michigan State, 1-0, in the Big Ten tournament semifinals. She notched her 100th Buckeye victory (vs. Ball State, Sept. 19) during the 2004 campaign. Most recently, Wilkinson claimed her 200th victory at Ohio State in a 1-0 win at UNH Aug. 26, 2012, in Durham, N.H.

Since starting her Buckeye career in the fall of 1996, Wilkinson has established Ohio State as a perennial Top 20 program and as one of the upper echelon teams in the Big Ten. She has guided the Buckeyes to three Big Ten regular-season championships (co-champs in 2001, outright in 2006, co-champs in 2010), a Big Ten tournament title (2001), five appearances in the NCAA tournament, one NCAA Final Four bid, 12 winning seasons and 11 Top 3 finishes in the conference standings.

In 2011, the Buckeyes tied for second in the conference with a 4-2 mark and advanced to their third-consecutive NCAA Tournament - the first time the program had done so in its 40-year history.

In 2010, Wilkinson led the Buckeyes to its most successful campaign in program history, including its first NCAA Final Four appearance, a program-record 18 wins and a share of the conference regular season championship. The Buckeyes advanced to the NCAA semifinals after defeating Syracuse, 3-2, in overtime Nov. 14 - the first NCAA quarterfinal game by any OSU team.

In 2006, she guided the team to the first win in NCAA tournament history when the Buckeyes defeated California by a score of 3-1 to advance to the second round. OSU also clinched its first outright Big Ten regular-season championship with a 5-1 record in league play.

During the 2005 and '06 seasons, Wilkinson guided the squad to back-to-back appearances in the NCAA tournament, also a program first. The combined record for those two years was 30-11, including a 15-4 overall record in 2006 for a .789 win percentage - the second-best in a season in OSU history, ranking only behind the Buckeye team that went 11-2-1 (.821) in their first varsity season in 1971.

The Buckeyes concluded the 2006 season ranked No. 5 in the final STX/NFHCA poll of the season, matching their highest ranking since 2001. In the last three seasons, Ohio State has been nationally ranked, including time within the Top 10. The 15 wins in the 2005 and '06 seasons tied for the second-most in OSU history.

In 2001, Wilkinson led the Scarlet and Gray to yet another successful season when the team finished the year 15-5 overall, 5-1 in the Big Ten, No. 5 in the nation and garnered its eighth-consecutive winning season. The Buckeyes captured the first Big Ten regular-season championship and conference tournament championship in the history of the program. The tournament title gave Ohio State an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament, marking just the second appearance for Ohio State.

Wilkinson came to Ohio State after an impressive nine-year stint as the head coach at American University in Washington, D.C. She was a two-time conference coach of the year and earned regional coach of the year accolades during her tenure. Her 1994 squad finished 15-3 and received its first national ranking at No. 15. That season, Wilkinson was named Mid-Atlantic Coach of the Year as well as Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year. In her nine years at AU, she coached 20 all-conference players, one All-American and one CAA Rookie of the Year.

The West Chester, Pa., native is a graduate of West Chester East High School and the University of Delaware. An outstanding scholastic field hockey and lacrosse player, Wilkinson was named to the inaugural West Chester Hall of Fame class as the only female member inducted that year.

At Delaware, Wilkinson was a two-time Mitchell & Ness All-American in field hockey. She also was an All-American as a lacrosse player and helped lead the Blue Hens to a national lacrosse title in 1983. Wilkinson was a four-year letterwinner in both sports. As a senior, she was named UD's Outstanding Senior Female Athlete, receiving the award with former NFL quarterback Rich Gannon as the Male Athlete of the Year. In November 2000, she was elected into the University of Delaware Athletics Hall of Fame.

Wilkinson's international field hockey experience included playing with the U.S. Under-21 National Team and the Under-23 National Team. She was a four-year participant in the U.S. Olympic Festival, capturing a gold medal in 1985. In 1998, she was an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-23 National Team.

At the development level, Wilkinson is the director of the prestigious All-American Field Hockey Camps, Inc. For 20 years she has been the head of the summer camps, which now are held annually at The Ohio State University. She also is an active member of the National Field Hockey Coaches Association.

Wilkinson is married to the late Raj Bhangu and resides in Upper Arlington with their dogs Harley and Darby.

HOMERO PARDI

ASSISTANT COACH

Homero Pardi is in his first season as an assistant coach for the Ohio State field hockey program. He joined the Buckeyes' staff in July 2014 after serving for two seasons as an assistant coach at Rider University.

"We are excited to have Homero join our staff," head coach Anne Wilkinson said. "Homero brings a wealth of experience and energy which makes him one of the best coaches in the business. His strong ability to positively relate with student-athletes has made him one of the best recruiters in our sport. I'm looking forward to Homero sharing his tactical and technical knowledge with our team and helping us reach our goals."

Pardi was at Rider for two seasons and helped the Broncos win the 2012 Northeast Conference regular season and tournament titles and the 2013 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference regular season championship. Overall, Rider won 28 games over the last two seasons. Pardi coached the MAAC co-Player of the Year, the Rookie of the Year and a member of the Longstreth/NFCA Mid-Athletic All-Region second team.

"It's a privilege to have the opportunity to be a part of The Ohio State University, the athletic department and the field hockey team," Pardi said. "Coach Wilkinson has presented me with the tremendous opportunity to work for an elite institution that strives for excellence in everything it does. I'm looking forward to working with this team and helping Buckeye field hockey reach top national rankings."

From 2008-11, Pardi coached at Princeton, where the Tigers were a perennial top-10 team and advanced to the 2009 Final Four. His duties included scouting analysis, practice planning and video breakdown.

Prior to Princeton, Pardi was an assistant at Georgetown from 2003-2007 and Kent State from 2002-2003. In addition to his college coaching experience, Pardi has served as a coaching director of Champion's Edge Field Hockey since 2003, a program that includes camps and clinics for players between the ages of 8-12.

A member of several Venezuelan national teams, Pardi was on the Indoor Pan American Cup team in 2002 and played in the America's Cup in 2000. He participated in the Junior Pan American Championship in 1996 and 2000 and played in the Pan American Clubs Championship from 1999 to 2001. Pardi also participated in the Central American and Caribbean Games, where he helped his team finish fourth overall. In May 2004, Pardi played in the Pan American Cup in Canada.

Pardi earned a bachelor's degree in Spanish with a minor in psychology from Rider University in 2013.

KELLY TERWILLIGER

ASSISTANT COACH

Kelly Terwilliger enters her third season as an assistant coach at Ohio State in 2014 after being hired on head coach Anne Wilkinson's staff on Jan. 17, 2012. She is involved in all aspects of the Buckeyes' program, including scouting, game planning, recruiting, practice planning and training.

Terwilliger is a former Buckeye (2004-07) and came to Ohio State from Ohio University, where she spent three seasons on the field hockey staff - two years as a graduate assistant and one season as an assistant coach.

"As a former Buckeye, Kelly brings a wealth of knowledge of what it takes to win in the Big Ten and be a student-athlete at Ohio State," Wilkinson said when Terwilliger was hired. "We are excited she is returning to her alma mater, where she was a key part of our 2006 Big Ten championship season."

In 2011, Terwilliger helped lead the Bobcats to a 9-1 record in Mid-American Conference play, tying the best league mark in program history. Ohio also matched the current MAC record books with 19 victories in 2011, while also claiming the MAC conference tournament championship and an appearance in the 2011 NCAA Tournament. Prior to her arrival in Athens, Terwilliger served as an undergraduate coach for the Buckeyes in 2008. Playing for the Scarlet and Gray, the native of East Stroudsburg, Pa., started in every game of her four-year career in the OSU backfield and earned the team's Most Valuable Defender Award in 2007 and 2008. She was named Academic All-Big Ten twice in her career and to the All-Big Ten Tournament team in 2007. The OSU back helped lead the team to a 2006 Big Ten Regular season title with a 15-4 record and appearance in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals.

Terwilliger, who received two masters degrees in coaching education and sports administration from Ohio as a graduate assistant, is currently a USFHA FUTURES Midwest Regional Head Coach and has attained her USFHA Coaching Level II Certification. In 2014, she was selected as aUSFHA High Performance Coach and Women's National Championship Tournament assistant coach. The High Performance program is the pipeline for collegiate players to try out for the USA National Team, which gave Terwilliger the opportunity to coach the nation's best players. She has also instructed at camps throughout Columbus and at collegiate camps at Ohio State, Michigan State, Louisville, Penn State, Rutgers and Bucknell.

BIG TEN MEDAL OF HONOR

In the past decade, the Ohio State field hockey program has had three student-athletes nab the prestigious Big Ten Medal of Honor award: Linda Haussener (1999-01), Saskia Mueller (2003-06) and Allison Blanton (2005-08).

Each member institution in the conference gives the award annually to the male and female athletes in the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in both academics and athletics. The Big Ten Conference office established the award in 1914 for men and an additional award for the top female was instituted in 1982. This honor includes a $5,000 postgraduate scholarship.

LINDA HAUSSENER

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

VANESSA IMMORDINOClass of 2009. Played 2000-03.

Three-time All-American Vanessa Immordino finished her career in the Top 5 in the Buckeye record books in career points (127), career goals (52) and single-season points with 54 as a senior. She also was a three-time First Team All-Big Ten selection and a three-time First Team West Region All-American, as well as a 2003 Finalist for the Women's National Field Hockey Player of the Year award. A four-time Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week, Immordino was captain of the Buckeyes as a senior. She ended her career as one of five Ohio State players to record 100 career points after leading the team in goals three seasons.

BRITTA EICKHOFFClass of 2003. Played 1994-97.

Britta Eickhoff sits at No. 2 in the Ohio State career record book with 170 points from 78 goals and 14 assists, sitting only behind Buckeye legend Sue Marcellus. In 1997, Eickhoff earned First Team America honors, becoming the first Buckeye to earn the highest selection since Marcellus last received the honor in 1979. A second-team All-American in 1996 as well, Eickhoff led the Buckeyes in scoring her junior and senior season, posting 67 points (30 goals, 7 assists) in 1996 and 49 points (23 goals 4 assists) in 1997. The two-time First Team All-West Region honoree owns three Top 10 Ohio State single season points record, including the third-best Buckeye single season effort coming in 1996 (67 points).

SUE MARCELLUSClass of 1996. Played 1976-79.

Regarded as Ohio State's best field hockey player, Sue Marcellus is the only athlete in the program to have her number retired. While at OSU, she was the all-time leader in career goals (117), career points (254) and single-season points (82), earning All-America honors in 1977, 1978 and 1979. She was a member of the US National Team from 1977 to 1980 and member of the 1980 US Olympic Team.

E. TEMPLE MESSER-BACKERClass of 1997. Attended Ohio State 1921-26.

(Also lettered in softball)

Although varsity sports didn't exist for women in the 1920s, E. Temple Messer-Baker participated in track and field, baseball, soccer and field hockey while a student at Ohio State. In 1925, she competed in the first women's intercollegiate track meet held in Ohio Stadium. After graduating with a degree in education, she went on to serve as a player, teacher and coach. She played on the American Field Hockey team, coached boys basketball and served as president of the Elk's Ladies Golf Association.

BARBARA WETTERS-BLOSSERClass of 1993. Attended Ohio State 1971-75. (Also lettered in basketball and tennis)

Three-sport star Barbara Wetters-Blosser competed in three national championship events in one year. A four-time Big Ten doubles champion, she was named to the 1971 Midwest Collegiate All-Star Field Hockey team. She also was captain of the basketball team as a freshman and sophomore. After leaving Ohio State, Wetters-Blosser served as an athletic administrator at William & Mary College.

PEGGY PALUMBOClass of 2005. Attended Ohio State 1958-61. (Also lettered in basketball)

A pioneer for women's sports at Ohio State, Peggy Palumbo was a first-team All-Lake Erie field hockey forward, as well as the captain of the unbeaten women's basketball team in 1960-61. Palumbo, the second in her family to be inducted into the Hall of Fame, also served as the president of Ohio State Physical Education Association (1960-61). After leaving Ohio State, she spent 20 years coaching girls high school sports in Cleveland area (basketball: 1970-90; volleyball: 1974-76; track and field: 1971-77; softball: 1978-1982).

SASKIA MÜELLERClass of 2013. Played 2003-06

Three-time All-American midfielder Saskia Müller finished her career in the Top 5 in the Buckeye record books in career assists (45), game winning goals (eight), games started (73) and single-season assists with 19 points as a junior. She also was a three-time All-Region honoree and All-Big Ten selection. During her senior year in 2006, Müller was named the Big Ten Player of the Year, becoming the first Buckeye in program history to earn the top conference honor. During her senior season, Müller was a four-time Big Ten Player of the Week honoree, finishing fourth in the conference in points, tying her career high with nine goals, including three of which were gamewinners. She guided the Scarlet and Gray to a Big Ten regular-season championship,

OHIO STATE CONFERENCE HISTORY

1981-1988: Ohio State competed in the Big Ten Conference; field hockey was eliminated in 1989 when Purdue eliminated the sport.

1989-1991: Ohio State competed in the Midwest Collegiate Field Hockey Conference.

1992-Present: Ohio State competes in the Big Ten Conference; field hockey was reinstated in the conference in 1992 when Penn State joined the Big Ten.

while starting all 19 games.

Müller also succeeded in the classroom, earning the prestigious Big Ten Medal of Honor during the 2006-07 season. She was a three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection and four-time OSU Scholar Athlete.
