Head Coach: Sylvain Malroux
Assistant Coach: Carolina Hannes
Volunteer Assistant: Chad Skorupka
Sylvain Malroux is in his second season as San Jose State University’s head coach for women’s tennis. At 36, he is the youngest women’s tennis coach the last six seasons. Malroux’s team compiled a 75-57 win-loss dual match record. Five of his six teams had winning percentages above .500, and the 2013 team had the best win-loss percentage (.650) since the 1986 team’s .760 (19-6) mark.

Malroux made an immediate impact leading the Spartans to a winning record for the first time since 2009 and was the 49th-ranked NCAA Division II singles player and 18th in doubles as a senior at Anderson College in South Carolina. There, he was a four-time academic all-conference pick and was selected as the Mason College Invitational singles champion and a doubles partner with his French Federation and the French Army.
