Permissible

- Travel with team to away contests and receive reimbursement for travel expenses
- Provide skill instruction to student-athletes
- Receive complimentary meals incidental to team activities (pre or post-game meal or occasional meal)
- Obtain parking expenses associated with practice and competition.
- Receive meal on prospect's official visit when dining with a prospect
- May receive up to TWO complimentary tickets to home athletic contests in coach’s sport
- Receive camp compensation from athletics department
- Receive camp compensation from source other than athletics department
- Work outside athletics department arranged by institution

NCAA Bylaw 11.01.5

In sports other than football and basketball, a volunteer coach is any coach who does not receive compensation or remuneration from the institution's athletics department or any organization funded in whole or in part by the athletics department or that is involved primarily in the promotion of the institution's athletics program (e.g., booster club, athletics foundation association). The following provisions shall apply:

- a) The individual is prohibited from contacting and evaluating prospects off campus or from scouting opponents off campus and may not perform recruiting coordination functions.
- b) The individual may receive a maximum of two complimentary tickets to home athletics contests in the coach's sport.
- c) The individual may receive complimentary meals incidental to organized team activities (e.g., pre- or postgame meals, occasional meals, but not training table meals) or meals provided during a prospect's official visit, provided the individual dines with the prospects.

Non-Permissible

- Perform recruiting coordination functions
- Make or receive telephone calls from prospect
- Participate in activities involving athletic evaluation or selection of prospects.
- Contact or evaluate of prospects off-campus
- Scout opponents
- Receive training-table meals
- Receive compensation or remuneration from athletics department
- Coach a high school, prep school or two-year college team in the same sport.
- Gambling or any sports wagering activities involving professional, amateur or intercollegiate sports where an item of value is given up for the possibility of gaining another item. This includes, but is not limited to internet sports wagering, NCAA brackets, pools, and fantasy leagues where there is an entry fee and the chance to win a prize.