Permissible

- Travel with team to away games
- May obtain parking expenses associated with away-from-home practice and competition
- Receive expenses incurred on road-trips that are received by individual team members (i.e.- travel, lodging and meals)
- Receive camp compensation from athletics department
- Receive camp compensation from source other than athletics department
- Work outside athletics department arranged by institution
- May receive up to four complimentary admissions to institutional sport contest

NCAA Bylaw 11.01.4 An undergraduate student assistant coach is any coach who is a student-athlete who has exhausted his or her eligibility in the sport or has become injured to the point that he or she is unable to practice or compete ever again, and who meets the following additional criteria:

- a) Is enrolled at the institution at which he or she most recently participated in intercollegiate athletics;
- b) Is enrolled as a full-time undergraduate student in his or her first baccalaureate degree program, except that during his or her final semester or quarter of the baccalaureate degree program, he or she may be enrolled in less than a full-time degree program of studies, provided he or she is carrying (for credit) the courses necessary to complete the degree requirements;
- c) Is receiving no compensation or remuneration from the institution other than the financial aid that could be received as a student-athlete and expenses incurred on road trips that are received by individual team members; and
- d) Is not involved in contacting and evaluating prospects off campus or scouting opponents off campus and does not perform recruiting coordination functions.

Non-Permissible

- Receive compensation or remuneration other than financial aid received as student-athlete and expenses incurred on road-trips
- Perform recruiting coordination functions
- Contact or evaluation of prospects off-campus
- Scout opponents
- Receive a meal during a prospect’s official visit unless Student-Assistant Coach is designated as the student host [Staff Interp, 9/29/1999]
- Gambling or any sports wagering activities involving professional, amateur or intercollegiate sports where an item of value is given up for the possibility of gaining another item. This includes, but is not limited to internet sports wagering, NCAA brackets, pools, and fantasy leagues where there is an entry fee and the chance to win a prize.