Pepperdine Clinches MPSF Title, Hosts Tournament

Pepperdine clinched the MPSF regular-season title and a semifinal spot in the conference tournament, of which the semifinals and championship will be in Malibu on April 28 and 30. The Waves will play the lowest remaining seed in the semifinals.

Eighth-seeded Stanford will travel to seventh-seeded CS-Northridge on Wed. (April 20), with the winner advancing to play second-seeded UCLA on Saturday (April 23) in the quarterfinals. In other quarterfinal matchups, third-seeded BYU, the defending national champion, plays host to sixth-seed UC-Santa Barbara and fourth-seeded Hawai'i plays host to fifth-seeded Long Beach State.

Pepperdine has won three of the past four MPSF regular-season titles, but has not won the national title in that time, losing to Hawai'i in the national championship match in 2002 and to eventual national champion Lewis in five games in the 2003 semifinals.

Molten MPSF Player of the Week

Long Beach State upset top-ranked UCLA and No. 12 UC-Irvine last week to clinch fifth place in the MPSF. Leading the 49ers was outside hitter Robert Tarr (Rockledge, Fla.), who had 28 kills against UCLA. He also had 19 kills and hit .406 at UC-Irvine.
