RECAP OF DAY 3 – 2007 MPSF WOMEN'S LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP AT UC DAVIS

STANFORD UPSETS NO. 15 DENVER TO CLAIM THIRD MPSF TITLE

DAVIS, Calif. -- Junior attacker Daphne Patterson scored four goals with an assist while senior Liz Piselli converted a hat trick, helping Stanford protect an early lead in a 12-11 upset over 15th-ranked Denver in the title game of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Women's Lacrosse Championships at UC Davis' Aggie Stadium Sunday. With the win, the Cardinal defended their third consecutive conference title despite having to rise from the tournament's No. 3 seed.

MPSF Player of the Year Kristie Leggio scored six assists with three goals for the Pioneers. Sophomore midfielder Karen Morton added three goals and an assist for DU.

Leggio had the title game's first goal, converting an assist from Steph Coyne just 5:10 into the contest. However, Stanford's Lauren Schmidt hit back-to-back strikes to give her team a 2-1 lead. Piselli scored all three of her goals in the first half, helping the Farm craft a 6-4 lead at the break. Then Patterson added three scores in a 4-0 Stanford run to open the second period, extending the advantage to 10-4.

After through a 25-minute scoring drought since late in the first half, Denver countered with four unanswered goals to close the gap to a 10-8 deficit. Leggio scored two in that run, including a successful eight-meter attempt that snapped her team's scoreless spell at 41:21.

Cardinal freshman Claire Hubbard scored at the 55:13 mark to push her team back up by three goals, then the Pioneers were forced into a short-handed situation when sophomore Natasha Davies earned a second yellow card - her team's fourth. Patterson nudged Stanford up to a four-goal lead by converting the ensuing eight-meter shot.

With Denver still a player down, Leggio scored her fifth goal on an eight-meter attempt with 2:21 remaining in the game, then hit her sixth less than a minute later when freshman Lexi Sanders won the next draw and assisted her senior teammate. Leggio helped cut the lead to 12-11 by winning the following draw then assisting Morton for a score with 1:11 left in the game.

DU had one final chance to tie the game when Sanders earned a ground ball in her defensive third. The Pioneers quickly cleared to the attacking end, and junior Megan Carver managed a shot with two seconds on the clock that sailed just above the crossbar.

The Pioneers drop to 16-3 for the season, and will wait to see if they have earned an at-large berth in the NCAA Championships. The Cardinal improve to 9-8, surpassing the .500 barrier for the first time all season.

In Sunday's third-place game, Anna Poponyak posted 10 saves and Kate Fleming scored three goals to lead Oregon to an 8-7 victory over California. Liz Reifsnnyder and Madeleine Dale each had two goals for the Golden Bears, while senior Laura Cavallo finished with a 1-2-3 line.

The Ducks never trailed in the contest as Brooke Dieringer scored the game's first goal and Kate Fleming's eight-meter goal at 10:32 put them up by a 3-1 margin. UO led 4-2 at halftime, then stretched the lead to three in the first minute on Fleming's goal from Ilsa van den Berg. However, a free-position goal by sophomore Ghillie Little at 36:29 began a 4-1 Golden Bear stretch that resulted in a 6-6 tie with under eleven minutes remaining.

Oregon midfielder Sarah MacDonald converted an Alison Leiner assist at 55:25 to send the Ducks back up by a single goal, then junior Jen May extended to lead to 8-6 with her goal at 58:56. Golden Bear senior Kathryn Lindler won the following draw with less than a minute remaining, allowing teammate Danni Zuralow to score with 0:48 left. However, May won the game's final draw and maintained control as time wound down in the game. The Ducks finish the year at 12-7, their best record in their three-year history. The Golden Bears end the season at 7-10.

Stanford goalie Laura Shane was selected as tournament MVP, while teammates Piselli, Patterson and Katharine Fox also made the all-tournament team. Denver was represented by Leggio, Morton and defender Kelly O'Connell on the all-tourney squad, while May and Alicia Burkhart were Oregon's selections.

Cal, UC Davis and Saint Mary's each had one member of the all-tournament roster. Hilary Lynch, who had 11 saves against Oregon and 12 in Saturday's loss to Denver, was the lone Golden Bear. Megan O'Connor earned the Aggie nod for her eight goals in the two games. Jackie Spencer, who had six goals against UC Davis in Saturday's fifth-place tilt, was the Gael representative.

This is the fourth year of the MPSF Championships for women's lacrosse.

RECAP OF DAY 2 – 2007 MPSF WOMEN'S LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP AT UC DAVIS

DENVER PROTECTS SEED, STANFORD GETS REVENGE IN MPSF SEMIFINAL GAMES

DAVIS, Calif. -- Denver protected its top seed in a wild 7-6 win over California, then Stanford avenged a previous setback in an 8-2 victory over Oregon in the two semifinal games of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Women's Lacrosse Championships at UC Davis' Aggie Stadium Saturday afternoon. Additionally, the host Aggies outlasted Saint Mary's, 12-10, in the tournament's fifth-place game.

In Saturday's first semifinal, the 15th-ranked Pioneers overcame a 5-4 deficit to claim the one goal win over the Golden Bears. MPSF Player of the Year Kristie Leggio scored two goals with two assists, while teammate and conference Newcomer of the Year Ali Flury posted a 2-1-3 line. For Cal, Liz Reifsnnyder and Elizabeth T. Jahp each had a pair of goals.

After a 2-2 halftime deadlock, Denver enjoyed a key turning point early in the second period. A yellow card against Cal's starting goalie Hilary Lynch forced the Golden Bears to turn to a reserve netminder, then a fourth yellow put them into a player-down situation for three minutes. In that short stretch, Flury and Steph Coyne each scored goals to establish a 4-2 edge.

That lead proved to be short-lived, however, as Jahp scored back-to-back goals in the 43rd and 44th minutes to tie the game. Then Lynch's save at 47:05 set the stage for Madeline Dale's transition goal, putting the Bears up by a 5-4 advantage.

Leggio tied the game six minutes later with her successful eight-meter attempt, then assisted Coyne with the go-ahead score at the 54:50 mark. Leggio won the next draw, then assisted Karen Morton for a goal with exactly four minutes remaining, all but sealing the game.

The Pioneers shifted into clock-management mode for the final stretch, although Kathryn Lindler's steal set up a free-position goal for Reifsnnyder under the two-minute mark. Flury won the ensuing draw, allowing DU to run out the final 90 seconds of play.

Lynch finished the game with 12 saves against five goals in the Cal net. Her counterpart, DU junior Becky Childs, had eight saves against six goals to earn the win. The Pioneers improve to 16-2 overall, while the Golden Bears slip to 7-9 for the season.

In the second semifinal, senior midfielder Liz Piselli scored five goals to help Stanford avenge its season-opening loss to Oregon. Sophomore Maris Perlman added two goals, while junior goalie Laura Shane tallied 11 saves against two goals in the Cardinal crease. The Ducks struggled to 2-for-25 in shots, including 1-for-7 in eight-meter opportunities.

Neither team could crack the seal on their respective goals until Perlman capitalized on Julie Christy's back-field steal at the 13:31 mark of the game. UO responded immediately, as Casey Rector won the ensuing draw and Leiner successfully attacked the Stanford cage just 26 seconds later.

Piselli scored two goals in the Cardinal's 4-0 run to end the first half, giving her team a 5-1 edge at the break. Then she converted her eight-meter attempt at 34:39 to ignite a personal stretch of three straight scores in the second half, stretching the Stanford lead to 8-1 by the 48th minute.

Sophomore midfielder Sarah McDonald finally ended her team's eight-meter woes with her successful attempt just under the two-minute mark, cutting the lead to 8-2. The Cardinal effectively ran out the final minutes to seal their win. Stanford evens its record to 8-8, while Oregon drops to 11-7 for the year.

In Saturday's opener, Katie McGovern hit her eight-meter shot with 4:24 remaining to break the game's fifth tie as UC Davis escaped with a 12-10 win over Saint Mary's in the fifth-place contest. Aggie senior Megan O'Connor scored four goals and won six draw controls, while McGovern finished with a hat trick.

The Gaels were led by senior Jackie Spencer's tournament-best six goals, while P.J. Hainley added three goals and five draw controls. Spencer's fifth goal provided SMC with a 9-8 lead in the 50th minute, while her sixth score came on the heels of UC Davis freshman Molly Lapolla's go-ahead goal in the 55th.

Junior defender Ranessa Santos donned the goalie gear for the first time in her career as she filled in for All-MPSF honoree Hilary Harkins, who was injured in Friday's loss to Cal. Santos posted six first-half saves for the Aggie victory.

The MPSF tournament, now in its fourth year, concludes on Sunday. Cal and Oregon will square off in the third-place game at 11 a.m., then Stanford will attempt to claim a third straight title in the title game against Denver at 1 p.m.

RECAP OF DAY 1 – 2007 MPSF WOMEN'S LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP AT UC DAVIS

CAL, STANFORD ADVANCE IN MPSF TOURNAMENT

Mark Honbo, UC Davis

DAVIS, Calif. -- Fourth-seeded California and third-seeded Stanford each won its respective quarterfinal game to advance to Saturday's semifinal in the first day of action of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Women's Lacrosse Championships at UC Davis' Aggie Stadium Friday. The Golden Bears protected their early lead in an 11-5 win over the host Aggies, while Stanford rolled to a convincing 20-7 victory over Saint Mary's.

In Friday's opener, senior midfielder Laura Cavallo scored four goals with three assists to lead Cal over UC Davis. The Golden Bears outshot the Aggies by a 14-4 margin in the first half to take an 8-2 lead at the break, then played even ball with their hosts to complete the win. Liz Reifsnnyder added two goals and an assist for Cal. Senior midfielder Megan O'Connor led UC Davis with a pair of second-half goals, while Katie McGovern, Patrice Clark and Molly Lapolla each added one score. O'Connor had back-to-back scores from the right side of the cage, closing the Aggies to within a 9-5 deficit.

UC Davis suffered a heart-breaking setback late in the game when its lone goalie, junior All-MPSF honoree Hilary Harkins, went down with an injury. Senior co-captain Jen Sanderson took over the goalkeeping chores for the final nine minutes. Cavallo hit an eight-meter attempt then added an unassisted goal at the 55:50 mark to seal the win.

The Aggies fall to 8-9 for the season, while the Golden Bears improve to 7-8.

In Friday's nightcap, freshman Dana Lindsay scored four goals and senior Liz Piselli added a hat trick to lead Stanford to the 13-goal win over Saint Mary's. Four different Cardinal players chipped two more goals each, including leading scorer Daphne Patterson, who contributed a 2-2-4 line. Sophomore midfielder P.J. Hainley and junior attacker Jen Utley each had hat tricks for the Gaels.

The Cardinal improve to 7-8 for the year. The Gaels drop to 3-13 overall.

UC Davis and Saint Mary's will battle for fifth place in the tournament's third game at 1 p.m. Saturday. Cal advances to take on top-seeded and 15th-ranked Denver at 3 p.m., while Stanford will conclude Saturday's action with a rematch against No. 2 seed Oregon at 5 p.m.

This is the fourth year of the MPSF Championships for women's lacrosse. Stanford has won the two previous titles, while Cal captured the inaugural championship in 2004.
