2006 MOUNTAIN PACIFIC SPORTS FEDERATION MEN'S VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT

Selected MPSF Championship Tournament Matches to be Webcast Live on the Internet

For the third-consecutive season, AlanMark Sports Productions will broadcast MPSF Men's Volleyball Championship Tournament action live on the internet.

AlanMark will start off with the webcast of number six seed Cal State Northridge at number three seed Pepperdine at 7:00 P.M. this Saturday evening at the Wave's Firestone Fieldhouse.

They will then webcast both semifinal matches at UC Irvine on Thursday, April 27, the second pitting the number one seed and championship host Anteaters against the winner of the number five seeded BYU at four seed Long Beach State quarterfinal.

On Saturday night, April 29, the action will culminate as the semifinal winners advance to compete for the 2006 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Men's Volleyball Championship and the conference automatic qualifier to the 2006 NCAA Men's Volleyball Championship Tournament May 4 & 6, at Penn State.

To log-in to AlanMarks' live MPSF men's volleyball championship webcasts, visit the MPSF's brand new website at www.mpsports.org. Each webcast will be live and archived for 24/7 access any time you get the urge to revisit.
